OWNERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

BRYAN GLAZER

OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 30th year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club and has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League. Over the past quarter-century, he has also evolved into one of Tampa Bay's top community leaders through his dedicated commitment to a variety of philanthropic endeavors.

The Glazer family's signing of six-time Super Bowl champion Tom Brady, along with the acquisition of other high-profile free agents during the 2020 offseason, set the stage for the franchise's historic run to its second world championship. The Buccaneers finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and posted a franchise-record eight-game winning streak which culminated with an appearance and eventual victory in Super Bowl LV.

On February 7, 2020, the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 31-9 at Raymond James Stadium, earning the distinction as the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. Under the Glazer family's leadership, the Buccaneers have totaled seven division titles, two conference championships, and are just the 14th NFL franchise to win multiple Super Bowls. In the nearly three decades since the family's purchase of the team in 1995, only three other ownership groups have claimed multiple Super Bowl victories. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the team advanced to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

On January 26, 2003, in just their eighth year of ownership, the Glazer family was on hand in San Diego, California for the franchise's first world championship as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. In addition to the 1999 NFC Central Division title, Tampa Bay has also won the NFC South in 2005, 2007, 2021, 2022 and 2023.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

His dedication to the Bay area was also highlighted by his leadership in the construction of Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in 2001, Super Bowl XLIII in 2009, and Super Bowl LV in 2020. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to Tampa Bay, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. During the 2017 offseason, Glazer once again played a major part in positioning Tampa Bay as the top option to host Super Bowl LV in 2021, when it was decided that Los Angeles would not be able to meet the criteria for hosting the game due to stadium construction delays. Tampa Bay has hosted three Super Bowls since the family's purchase of the team and Glazer remains committed to pursuing future Super Bowls for the area. Glazer also serves on the NFL's Media Owned and Operated Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell.

Prior to the 2022 season, Glazer played a pivotal role in the decision to name Todd Bowles as the team's new head coach following the retirement of Bruce Arians. Bowles has gone on to lead the Buccaneers to consecutive NFC South division titles, becoming the first head coach in franchise history to accomplish that feat.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' corporate partners with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer has also distinguished himself as one of Tampa Bay's top philanthropists and, in the spring of 2016, was honored with induction into the Tampa Bay Business Hall of Fame in recognition of his business achievements and community leadership in and around the region.

In 2010, the Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa thanks in large part to a $5 million donation from the Glazer Family Foundation. Glazer is on the Board of Directors for the award-winning museum which has served the children of Tampa Bay through educational programming. Glazer is also a member of the Moffitt Cancer Center National Board of Advisors and has served as chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball.

He also serves as a Board Member for the Glazer Vision Foundation which has performed more than 200,000 free eye screenings and provided more than 20,000 free prescription eyeglasses to children in need.

Glazer has also played a large role in the redevelopment of West Tampa through a $4 million donation that led to the construction of the Shanna and Bryan Glazer JCC. The Center, which opened in December of 2016, has provided a wide array of community programming and serves as a key anchor for the area.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Glazer family provided 5 million meals through a donation to Feeding Tampa Bay, which was the largest single donation of meals to the program at the time. The family also pledged $100,000 to the One Tampa: Relief Now, Rise Together Fund and another $100,000 to the City of St. Petersburg's Fighting Chance Fund.

In 2024, Shanna and Bryan Glazer donated $2 million to Berkeley Preparatory School's endowment for teachers in an effort to ensure the adequate compensation necessary to attract and retain high-quality teachers who foster a more effective learning environment.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title during his tenure.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. He resides in Tampa with his wife, Shanna, and their two children.

JOEL GLAZER

OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer is entering his 29th season overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise, along with other members of the Glazer family.

After working alongside his father Malcolm to successfully acquire the Tampa Bay Buccaneers franchise in 1995, Glazer worked tirelessly in conjunction with his brother, Bryan, to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. The Glazers set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort.

Since assuming his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have made 10 playoff appearances, including a stretch from 1999–2002 in which Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to appear in the postseason all four years. Under the Glazer family's leadership, the Buccaneers have won six division titles, two NFC Championships and two Super Bowls.

Prior to the 2020 season, Glazer helped engineer the boldest free agent signing in franchise history with the acquisition of six-time Super Bowl champion quarterback Tom Brady. The signing, along with the addition of a number of other key players, immediately transformed the Buccaneers into title contenders and set the stage for the team's historic victory in Super Bowl LV. When the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 31–9 on February 7, 2020, at Raymond James Stadium, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team had won a Super Bowl on its home field. Previous to that, the franchise's other signature historical moment occurred at the conclusion of the 2002 season when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48–21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005 and 2007.

On January 8, 2019, the Glazer family hired two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians as the team's head coach. During three memorable seasons at the helm in Tampa Bay, Arians finished his time with the Buccaneers as the franchise leader in winning percentage (.633) by a head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy. After Arians transitioned into a front office role, Glazer was then part of the decision-making process that elevated Todd Bowles from defensive coordinator to head coach ahead of the 2022 NFL season. During his three seasons as defensive coordinator for the Buccaneers (2019–21), Bowles' unit ranked third in the NFL in both takeaways and sacks, in addition to finishing top three in the NFL in rush defense in each of his three seasons. In his first season as head coach, Bowles led the Buccaneers to an NFC South division title, joining Jon Gruden as the only coaches in franchise history to accomplish that feat in year one.

Glazer represents the franchise at all league meetings and is very active in a wide range of NFL matters. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL International Committee, as well as being a member of the following other NFL committees: Finance Committee, Media Committee, NFL Management Council Executive Committee, and Legalized Sports Betting Committee.

Glazer also played an integral role in helping Tampa host be awarded and host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001, Super Bowl XLIII in 2009 and Super Bowl LV in 2021.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to helping children in the Tampa Bay area through charity initiatives. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened in 2010 and was named one of the Top Ten Family Museums in the country by Women's Day Magazine. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in 2011.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), one Champions League title (2008), four League Cups (2006, 2009, 2010, 2017), one FA Cup (2016), and one Europa League Championship (2017) during his tenure. His work with the club led to his naming as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by The Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York, native is married to Angela, and the couple has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER

OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Entering his 30th season with the Buccaneers in 2024, Owner/Co-Chairman Edward Glazer actively oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Glazer recognizes the critical importance of the fans to the team's success and has been instrumental in reinforcing Tampa Bay's commitment to its fan base and the unique experiences offered to Buccaneers Season Pass Members. He pioneered the NFL's first 12-month interest-free payment plan. Under his leadership, the Buccaneers ranked No. 1 in overall customer satisfaction again in 2023 among all 32 NFL clubs, marking the team's tenth top ranking in the last twelve years.

Glazer's commitment to the fans and the team's on-field success was evident during the 2020 offseason, which saw the Buccaneers make one of the most significant free-agent signings in NFL history with the acquisition of quarterback Tom Brady. This strategic move, coupled with several other key signings, culminated in the team's historic Super Bowl LV victory, making it the first NFL franchise to win a Super Bowl on its home field, at Raymond James Stadium on February 7, 2021. This secured the organization's second world championship under the Glazer family's leadership.

Under the nearly three decades of the Glazer family's stewardship, the Buccaneers have logged nine playoff appearances, seven division titles, two NFC Championships, and victories in Super Bowl XXXVII (2002) and Super Bowl LV (2020).

In addition to team achievements, Glazer led the design and launch of the Buccaneers' new uniforms unveiled before the 2020 season. The uniforms, which harken back to the franchise's most successful era, were developed based on extensive fan feedback. Glazer also led the design of an all-pewter alternate uniform along with the return of the throwback uniforms, which are a fan favorite, further connecting the team's storied history with its modern era.

Glazer was pivotal in the $160 million, multi-phase renovation of Raymond James Stadium, focusing on enhancing the game-day experience. These renovations included updates to the stadium's technology infrastructure, making the Buccaneers' in-stadium experience one of the best in the league. The project revamped all main level concession stands and incorporated over 31,000 square feet of new HD video boards, new ribbon boards, four HD tower video displays, and an all-new surround sound system. The premium areas saw a complete transformation, introducing two all-inclusive Hall of Fame Clubs and a newly reimagined West Stadium Club. Recent additions have included a new 10,000-square-foot retail store, the expansions and redesigns of both Hall of Fame clubs, and Bar 76, a full-service premium sports bar.

Furthermore, the Glazer family constructed a state-of-the-art indoor practice facility at the team's headquarters. This 100,000-square-foot facility features more than 3,000 seats for fans to enjoy training camp practices and special events.

Beyond the football field, the Glazer family has contributed significantly to the Tampa Bay area through various programs, grants, and donations. The Glazer Children's Museum, located downtown, has received high praise, including being named as one of the Top 10 children's museums in the country. During the spring of 2020, to assist during the COVID-19 pandemic, the Glazer family donated five million meals through Feeding Tampa Bay and pledged significant funds to local relief efforts.

Edward and his wife, Shari, through the Edward and Shari Glazer Charitable Trust, support various causes, including the Elton John AIDS Foundation, the Braille Institute, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation, the Los Angeles Museum of Contemporary Art, and the "B.F.F. Bear Program" which provides teddy bears to pediatric patients in several hospitals.

In addition to his role with the Buccaneers, Glazer serves on the board of the family-owned Manchester United Soccer Club, the world's most popular sports team. He is also the founder and CEO of US Property Trust and US Auto Trust, holding extensive real estate and auto dealership investments across the United States.

A proud alumnus of Ithaca College, Glazer opened the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena on the school's campus.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ

OWNER
PRESIDENT, TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS FOUNDATION
PRESIDENT, GLAZER VISION FOUNDATION

Darcie Glazer Kasewitz has been a driving force behind the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' commitment to innovative, forward-thinking fan engagement. Her leadership has helped position the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to be recognized at the forefront of creating opportunities for female fans and advancing social justice through strategic programming across Tampa Bay and nationally.

Through her dedication to innovative programming, Kasewitz helped establish the Social Justice Initiative in 2018 alongside Buccaneers coaches, scouts and staff focusing on youth empowerment, police relations, criminal justice reform, racial equality, and workforce development. The initiative is funded by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation Social Justice Fund, created by the Glazer family to match players charitable donations and invest millions to charitable organizations throughout the region.

In 2024, Kasewitz spearheaded the launch of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers National Coaching Academy to create new pathways and entry points for coaches seeking their first opportunity to work in the NFL. The ambitious and pioneering academy is held at the Buccaneers training facility and delivers an intensive, comprehensive curriculum and participation in the team's rookie minicamp for coaching candidates seeking their first entry into the NFL. Thousands of applications were submitted and reviewed by Buccaneers coaches and staff and 25 finalists were awarded a full scholarship to cover costs in Tampa. Upon completion of the team's rookie minicamp, the coaching and front office staff will select five finalists in its inaugural year to transition into the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship and work alongside Buccaneers coaches, scouts and staff during training camp and preseason.

Aligned with the core belief that "Football is for All", Kasewitz has implemented groundbreaking initiatives to strengthen the Buccaneers' connection with all segments of their fan base and has helped position the Buccaneers as leaders across the NFL in diversity and inclusivity. In 2015, she introduced Women of Red, a pioneering program focused on enhancing the fan experience for women. Women of Red was deemed "the tipping point for a genuine connection to fans" attracting thousands of women to a variety of interactive experiences, including exclusive behind-the-scenes access and opportunities to interact with players, legends, and current executives.

Under her stewardship, the Buccaneers have introduced many first-of-its-kind women's and girls' programming, including the Women's Summit for Careers in Football, the Girls in Football Collegiate Scholarship and pioneered the Buccaneers Girls Flag Football Preseason Classic, the largest girls flag football tournament in the nation. This annual multi-day event grew to 109 teams and 2,100 athletes in 2024, which remains the largest in the country. To highlight these talented athletes in the Tampa Bay area, the team launched @BuccaneersFlag, the Instagram handle dedicated to showcase all things flag football.

In support of the Glazer family's long-standing commitment to education and children in the Tampa Bay community, the Glazer Family Foundation provided a lead gift to open the world-class Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa as part of its ongoing dedication to children. This one-of-a-kind museum opened on September 25, 2010, and instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay. In 2020, the Glazer family donated an additional lead gift to create the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier, a 26-acre St. Pete Pier District that has become a destination amenity for thousands of children and families.

To advance the Buccaneers support of education, the single-largest in-school program in team history was launched through the Jr. Bucs School Program impacting nearly 200,000 students in 300 elementary and middle schools across the Tampa Bay Area. In 2024, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation expanded their partnership with Hillsborough County Public Schools with funding to support the installation of 135 outdoor shade covers and covered courts at all elementary schools in the region. To further support education, more than 24,000 children have received tickets to Raymond James Stadium through the Buccaneers Game-day for Education program to reward children for their academic achievement.

Kasewitz also leads the Glazer Vision Foundation, focusing on full-treatment vision correction for children in Tampa Bay. For over a decade, the Foundation provides eye exams and prescription glasses to underserved children in need using the Mobile Vision Clinic. Since its inception, the program has performed more than 200,000 free eye screenings and provided more than 20,000 free prescription eyeglasses to children and families. In addition to ocular health, The Glazer family provides programs, resources and financial support that help ensure all families can call Tampa Bay home through affordable housing efforts, combatting food insecurity and closing disparities in education. Through a multi-million-dollar gift to the AdventHealth Foundation, the family is also improving healthcare in Tampa Bay.

Kasewitz has also had a strong influence on the design and aesthetic of many of the signature spaces enjoyed by Buccaneers fans and players at the team's business headquarters and training facility. In partnership with her brothers, she helped spearhead the design of the AdventHealth Training Center which features in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise, including the team's two Lombardi trophies as well as an original sculpture titled "The Moment of Victory" which depicts the moment the team won its first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. Additionally, she was instrumental in the planning and design of the Buccaneers' 100,000-square-foot indoor practice facility which debuted in 2018.

Darcie Glazer Kasewitz serves on the NFL's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation, a national non-profit organization established in 1974 by Billie Jean King that has invested over $100 million to expand access and opportunities for girls and women in sports. She has also served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Kasewitz serves on the Board of the Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured six titles since the Glazer family took over the club: five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kasewitz graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990 and earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993. Kasewitz and her husband, Joel, reside in Tampa.

AVRAM GLAZER
OWNER

OWNER

REMEMBERING MALCOLM GLAZER

AS OWNER OF THE BUCCANEERS, HE REINVENTED A FRANCHISE AND REINVIGORATED A COMMUNITY.

The path that brought Malcolm Glazer to purchase the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 originated in his father's watch-parts business in Rochester, N.Y., where the younger Glazer started working when he was 15. It is no surprise then, that upon taking over the Buccaneers, he wanted to know exactly what made the organization tick.

Malcolm Glazer passed away on May 28, 2014 at the age of 85. During his nearly two decades as owner and president of the Buccaneers, virtually every facet of the team was closely examined and, where necessary, rebuilt. The result was a stunning turnaround for what had been one of the NFL's long-struggling franchises.

Glazer inherited a team with a .300 winning percentage during its first 19 years of existence, one with just two division titles, a single playoff win and, of course, no championship trophies. In just two years, with a new coach on the sideline and bold new uniforms on the players, a 16-year playoff drought was over. The team would move into a gorgeous new stadium the following year, and win a division title and advance to the conference championship game the year after that. By January 2003, Glazer was triumphantly holding the Lombardi Trophy over his head, grinning from ear to ear while surrounded by a team that had just defeated the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Positive changes continued without interruption. The Buccaneers moved into a new state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters in 2006, the most advanced NFL home in the league. They won three division titles in a seven-year span. In 1997, they started a string of consecutive game sellouts at Raymond James Stadium that would last a dozen years, an unprecedented run in franchise history. Glazer also landed Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa, the third and fourth to be played in the city. Through it all, community outreach and customer service became central organizational goals.

But Glazer's desire to understand the Buccaneers' inner gears – and have them work with maximum efficiency – went beyond new buildings and organizational charts. He was keenly interested in the people of the organization as well. He took great pleasure in greeting each player in the locker room with a handshake before and after games. He fostered a family atmosphere at team headquarters, according to a source no less credible than Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks. Brooks was one of many long-time Buccaneers who considered Mr. Glazer not just the team's owner but a personal friend.

"I'm proud to say – and I'm glad – that he's the only owner I ever played for," said Brooks, who was a first-round draft pick in 1995, the same year Glazer arrived.

Despite the team's decade-and-a-half of struggles, Glazer immediately realized that a passionate fan base existed. The area's obsession with the Buccaneers was ready to be rekindled if the team could show an unwavering commitment to winning.

Glazer and his family did exactly that, and they did it by being pioneers in the industry, creating innovative solutions for issues at all levels of the organization. They also did it by aggressively pursuing the right people to lead the team, and then providing them with the assets they needed to succeed.

And while Glazer restored the community's belief in its team, he also reached out to those who needed help within that community. This was of such importance to him that in 1999 he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has since donated millions and reached countless thousands in need. A new stadium and a striking new team facility now grace the region's skyline, but a third building in downtown Tampa is just as much a part of Malcolm Glazer's legacy: The Glazer Children's Museum, which opened its doors in 2010.

Malcolm Glazer left behind his wife, Linda, in addition to six children and 14 grandchildren. His children will continue to own and operate the franchise as they have throughout the family's ownership. They will do so by following the blueprint of a visionary man and a caring leader, a man who gave the franchise a new era of enormous success by caring about how the little details worked.

FOOTBALL FOR IMPACT

The Buccaneers recognize the power of our platform to drive positive and sustainable change for the greater Tampa Bay community. This is why we are committed to designing impactful programs with the community to address areas of disparity and opportunity. As a result, the Buccaneers launched the Social Justice Initiative in 2018 and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers National Coaching Academy in 2024. The team is also at the forefront of all gender equality efforts, including establishing a first-of-its-kind flag football tournament and scholarships for girls in football.

JASON LICHT GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014. Licht owns more than two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with six organizations. In 28 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed a 240-214 (.529) record, 13 playoff appearances, 11 division championships, five conference championships and two Super Bowl titles.

Since Licht took over the general manager role in Tampa Bay in 2014, the Buccaneers lead the NFL in most snaps played (114,185) and most games started (1,598) by a team's own first through fifth round draft picks during that span, exhibiting his sustained success through the NFL Draft over his tenure. Additionally, 28 of the 33 different players who started a game for Tampa Bay in 2023 were homegrown players. Since 2020 alone, the Buccaneers lead all NFC teams in total wins (47) and are the only team in the conference to reach the playoffs in each of the past four seasons, winning three consecutive NFC South division titles during that stretch.

In 2024, Licht locked in key 2023 free agent acquisition, quarterback Baker Mayfield, to a long-term contract extension following a season in which Mayfield was named to his first Pro Bowl and earned the PFWA Most Improved Player award. He was 1-of-2 players with 28+ passing touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in 2023, leading the Buccaneers to an NFC South division title and a spot in the NFC Divisional Round. Mayfield joined Tom Brady as the only players in team history to throw for 4,000+ yards, 25+ touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in a single season and capped off his first year with the Buccaneers by recording back-to-back postseason games with 300+ passing yards and three touchdowns. In addition to stabilizing the quarterback position, Licht re-signed franchise cornerstones linebacker Lavonte David, wide receiver Mike Evans and safety Antoine Winfield Jr., while bringing back fourth-round success story in safety Jordan Whitehead, who Licht originally drafted in 2018 and who became a starter on Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

With their performances during the 2023 season, Licht's 2014 and 2020 first-round draft picks – Evans and Wirfs – each earned Pro Bowl selections in 2023, in addition to 2020 second-round selection, Winfield Jr., earning AP first-team All-Pro accolades and Evans earning second-team All-Pro recognition. Evans notched his 10th consecutive season with 1,000 yards receiving and tied for the league lead in touchdown receptions (13). Winfield Jr. held a share of the league lead in both forced fumbles (six) and fumble recoveries (four), and became the first player since data became available in 1999 with 100+ tackles, three-plus interceptions, three-plus forced fumbles, three-plus fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks in a single season.

Throughout the 2023 offseason, Licht was tasked with navigating a complicated salary cap situation and finding a successor to Tom Brady following the quarterback's retirement, all while retooling a roster in search of its third consecutive NFC South division title. Through a series of extensions for inside linebacker Lavonte David, cornerback Jamel Dean and outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, plus value free agent signings in quarterback Baker Mayfield, running back Chase Edmonds, defensive lineman Greg Gaines and kicker Chase McLaughlin, Licht was able to successfully address team needs while abiding by league cap restrictions. McLaughlin was named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus after setting a new single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%), converting 29-of-31 field goal opportunities in 2023.

The team's 2023 draft class produced seven players who played at least 13 games for Tampa Bay during their rookie season, providing the most total snaps by a 2023 NFL rookie class (5,560). First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

Tampa Bay's 2022 season saw the Buccaneers earn their second consecutive NFC South division title, marking the first time in franchise history that the organization garnered back-to-back division championships. The 2022 campaign signaled the final season of Tom Brady's career, concluding a three-year span with Tampa Bay that saw him lead the Buccaneers to 32 regular season wins, five postseason wins, two division titles and one Super Bowl Championship after he was signed by Licht as a free agent during the 2020 offseason. Brady finished his time in Tampa Bay as the organization's all-time leader in passer rating (98.1) and completion percentage (66.7%), while ranking second in passing touchdowns (108), pass completions (1,376) and yards per attempt (7.10), and third in pass attempts (2,062) and passing yards (14,643). The 2022 season also saw 2020 draftee Tristan Wirfs named to his second Pro Bowl, while garnering second-team All-Pro honors.

Licht navigated the 2022 offseason swiftly despite the retirement announcement of two offensive mainstays in tight end Rob Gronkowski and guard Ali Marpet. The first move came in March when the Buccaneers announced a trade with the New England Patriots for guard Shaq Mason. Following the trade came several re-signings of foundational pieces Licht either drafted or acquired through free agency. Pro Bowl center Ryan Jensen was the first to re-sign with the team, followed by cornerback Carlton Davis III and running back Leonard Fournette. Licht also secured one of the league's best wide receivers when he reached a multi-year extension with his 2017 third-round pick Chris Godwin.

In 2021, quarterback Tom Brady helped lead the Buccaneers to a 13-4 record while recording the best statistical season of his 22-year career, leading the league in both yards (5,316) and touchdowns (43). Brady was protected by three Pro Bowlers in center Ryan Jensen, guard Ali Marpet, and tackle Tristan Wirfs. The trio combined for 3,369 snaps and only allowed five sacks. Adding to the No. 1-ranked passing offense, Mike Evans set a career-high in touchdown catches (14), finishing second in the NFL. Evans' historic year was highlighted by an eighth consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season and his fourth Pro Bowl selection.

Defensively, Licht constructed a unit with Pro Bowlers at every level, with Shaquil Barrett receiving his second selection as a Buccaneer and Vita Vea, Devin White, and Antoine Winfield Jr. all receiving their first honor. In his third season, White led the team in total tackles (128) and tied for 10th in the NFL in solo tackles (87). Winfield Jr. led the league in fumble recoveries with three. Before wrapping up the regular season, Licht signed Vea to a contract extension, rewarding the nose tackle who bolstered the Buccaneers run defense to a top-three finish in three consecutive seasons from 2019-21.

During the 2021 offseason, Licht led the effort to retain all 22 starters from the Buccaneers' Super Bowl LV championship team, the first reigning champion to accomplish this feat in the salary cap era. This led to a franchise-record 13 regular-season wins and two home playoff games, including a Divisional Round appearance. Nine of those 22 starters were named to the Pro Bowl, tying a franchise record.

In 2020, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, at Raymond James Stadium in Super Bowl LV. Twelve of Tampa Bay's 22 starters in the Super Bowl were drafted by Licht, including all five members of the team's starting defensive backfield. All but two of the players on the team's championship roster were acquired by Licht. Brady, the game's most valuable player, was the most notable of many key acquisitions Licht made last offseason, propelling the Buccaneers to the second championship in franchise history.

In the 2020 regular season, Brady helped guide the team to an 11-5 record, while setting the franchise single-season record for touchdown passes, with 40. Brady also oversaw an offense that established franchise records for points scored (492) and total touchdowns (59).

Of the team's 14 postseason touchdowns, nine were scored by players acquired by Licht during the 2019 offseason, including all four touchdowns scored in Super Bowl LV. On the defensive side of the ball, outside linebackers Shaquil Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul formed one of the league's most dominant pass-rushing duos, combining for the second-most sacks (45.5) by any NFL teammates from 2019-20.

Entering the 2020 season, Licht was able to make significant changes to the roster, despite offseason challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. Licht spearheaded the Buccaneers' first-ever virtual draft by selecting seven players, including offensive tackle Tristan Wirfs at No. 13 overall. Wirfs was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2020 alongside second-round pick Antoine Winfield Jr. The Buccaneers were the only team in the NFL to have multiple draft picks selected to the All-Rookie Team in consecutive seasons from 2019-20. Licht was able to keep the defensive front seven together by placing the franchise tag on outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and re-signing defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh and outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul. Pierre-Paul went on to earn a Pro Bowl selection in 2020. The most significant change came in March after signing six-time Super Bowl-winning quarterback Tom Brady in free agency and conducting a trade with New England to bring five-time Pro Bowl tight end Rob Gronkowski out of retirement. The 2020 season saw Evans - Licht's first ever draft selection as general manager - become the first player in NFL history to record 1,000+ receiving yards in each of their first seven seasons.

In 2019, Evans' fellow receiver Chris Godwin posted his first career 1,000-yard season and earned AP's second-team All-Pro honors. That season, the duo became the first pair of receiver teammates voted to the Pro Bowl since Arizona's Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin in 2009.

On the defensive side of the ball in 2019, outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett was named second team All-Pro and earned a Pro Bowl selection after setting a franchise record for single-season sacks with 19.5. Linebacker Devin White - the fifth overall pick in the 2019 NFL draft - was named Defensive Rookie of the Month in both November and December, in addition to making the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting. Rookie cornerback Jamel Dean recorded 17 passes defended, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL, while second-year cornerback Carlton Davis recorded 19 passes defended, the second-most in the NFL.

During the 2019 offseason, Licht made a handful of changes to the team's defense, most notably adding free agent defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, a five-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection. Suh - alongside 2018 first-round draft pick Vita Vea - helped anchor a Buccaneers defensive line that held opponents to the fewest rushing yards per game in 2019 (73.8 rush yards allowed per game). Licht also brought in outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett while spending the team's first five draft picks on the defensive side of the ball, including linebacker Devin White, selected with the fifth overall pick.

In 2019 offseason, Licht signed left tackle Donovan Smith to a contract extension, after having done the same with left guard Ali Marpet during the 2018 season. Marpet (61st overall) and Smith (34th overall) entered the league as second-round picks in the 2015 NFL Draft and went on to start 101 and 124 games, respectively for the Buccaneers in their careers.

In 2018, Mike Evans ranked third in the NFL in receiving yards and set a franchise single season record (1,524) one the way to earning his second career Pro Bowl selection. Prior to the 2018 season, Evans was rewarded with a contract extension.

In the 2018 offseason, Licht transformed the team's defensive line with the addition of Jason Pierre-Paul, Carl Nassib and Vita Vea. Pierre-Paul went on to lead the team in sacks with 12.5 - then the most by any Buccaneers player since 2005 (Simeon Rice, 14.0). Acquired through waivers from Cleveland, Nassib finished the season ranked second on the team in sacks, with 6.5. Five players from Licht's 2018 draft class were primary starters during the team's 2020 Super Bowl LV Championship season, including Vea (first round), cornerback Carlton Davis III (second round), running back Ronald Jones II (second round), guard Alex Cappa (third round) and safety Jordan Whitehead (fourth round).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Licht selected three players who stepped into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions - tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie. The Buccaneers also got contributions from wide receiver Chris Godwin, who capped off his rookie season by earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 17 before becoming a full-time starter in 2018 and having putting forth his breakout season in 2019.

The Buccaneers finished the 2016 season at 9-7. Mike Evans earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after finishing the year with 96 catches for 1,321 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 touchdown catches tied his own franchise record (set in 2014) and were tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2016. His 96 catches were then the second-most in Buccaneers history and the sixth-most in the league that season, while his 1,321 yards were then the third-most ever by a Buccaneers player and ranked fourth in the NFL.

Another major contributor to the team's offense in 2016 was tight end Cameron Brate, who originally joined the team as a college free agent out of Harvard in 2014. Brate became an integral part of the Buccaneers offense over the course of his career, finishing with 273 receptions for 2,857 yards and 33 touchdowns in 126 games played for Tampa Bay. His 33 career touchdown receptions stand as the fourth-most in franchise history.

In 2015, Licht drafted quarterback Jameis Winston with the No. 1 overall pick. During Winston's five seasons with the team, he set franchise records for pass attempts (2,548), completions (1,563), passing yards (19,737) and passing touchdowns (121).

Licht joined the Buccaneers in 2014, on the heels of two seasons with Arizona as the vice president of player personnel, working under general manager Steve Keim, who earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from both Pro Football Talk and Sporting News. Licht's first draft pick with Tampa Bay, wide receiver Mike Evans, was selected seventh overall in the 2014 NFL Draft and went on to have a stellar rookie season, finishing with 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and being named to the PFWA, NFL.com, ESPN.com and SI.com All-Rookie Teams.

Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to the vice president position.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside seven head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Bruce Arians, Pete Carroll, Lovie Smith, Ken Whisenhunt) and seven who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their careers (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Smith, Arians and Dom Capers).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

In 2008 Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. Licht then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the team that won three Super Bowls in four seasons, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

TODD BOWLES HEAD COACH

Todd Bowles enters his third season as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following his three seasons as the team's defensive coordinator (2019-21).

Over his first two seasons, Bowles accomplished a feat that no one else has through their first two years as Buccaneers head coach, leading the team to consecutive playoff appearances and consecutive NFC South division titles.

Since joining the Buccaneers in 2019, Bowles' defenses have set the standard for rush defense, leading the league in both fewest rushing yards per game allowed (93.0) and fewest rush yards per attempt allowed (3.9), while limiting opponents to the fourth-fewest rushing touchdowns (55). He has led an opportunistic defense that ranks first in opponent fumble recoveries (59), first in strip sacks (41), first in quarterback hits (535), second in sacks (235), second in forced fumbles (82), second in tackles for loss (439), third in goal-to-go efficiency (66.9%), fifth in takeaways (128), fifth in red zone efficiency (53.7%), sixth in fewest yards per play allowed (5.2), eighth in fewest net passing yards allowed per attempt (6.4), tied for eighth in defensive touchdowns (11), ninth in fewest yards per game allowed (334.2), ninth in passes defended (360) and 10th in lowest third-down conversion rate against (38.1%).

In his five seasons with Tampa Bay, Bowles has coached eight different Buccaneers to Pro Bowl selections as either defensive coordinator or head coach: Shaquil Barrett (2019, 2021), Mike Evans (2023), Baker Mayfield (2023), Jason Pierre-Paul (2020), Vita Vea (2021), Devin White (2021), Antoine Winfield Jr. (2021) and Tristan Wirfs (2022, 2023).

In 2023, Bowles guided the NFL's eighth-youngest roster to an appearance in the NFC Divisional round, earning his first career playoff win as a head coach in a commanding 32-9 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round. He inspired a 5-1 finish in the final six weeks of the regular season to secure Tampa Bay's spot in the playoffs.

A former defensive back himself, Bowles oversaw a breakout season for safety Antoine Winfield Jr. in 2023, earning him first-team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press and Pro Football Focus. Since data is available dating back to 1999, Winfield Jr. is the lone player with 100+ tackles, three-or-more interceptions, three-or-more forced fumbles, three-or-more fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks in a single season. The defense as a whole finished top five in run defense for the fourth time in five seasons under Bowles and ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023.

On the offensive side of the ball, newly-signed quarterback Baker Mayfield had the best season of his NFL career, earning the 2023 Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award and Pro Bowl honors after setting career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (63.4%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28). Mike Evans earned his fifth career Pro Bowl nod and continued his run as the NFL's most consistent receiver, recording his 10th consecutive season with 1,000+ receiving yards - the longest-such streak to begin a career and the second-longest streak overall in NFL history. Despite shifting from right tackle to left tackle, Tristan Wirfs earned his third Pro Bowl selection in just his fourth year in the NFL becoming just the second offensive lineman in franchise history with three consecutive Pro Bowl trips.

In 2022, Bowles led the Buccaneers to the NFC South title in his first year as the head coach in Tampa Bay, joining Jon Gruden as the only coaches in franchise history to accomplish that feat in year one. He was the play caller for a defense that finished top 10 in the NFL in total yards per game (324.3 opponent yards/game), yards per play (5.14 avg.), pass defense (203.5 passing yards allowed/game), net yards per attempt (6.1), sacks (45.0) and tackles for loss (89), while limiting opponents to the fifth-fewest first downs per game (18.5) and the sixth-lowest third down conversion percentage (36.9 percent).

On the other side of the ball, Tristan Wirfs made his second Pro Bowl as part of an offensive line unit that led the league in fewest sacks allowed/pass attempt (2.8%). In addition, Tampa Bay ranked second in the NFL in passing offense (279.8 yards/game) and boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Mike Evans and Chris Godwin. Godwin finished eighth in the NFL with his 104 receptions - the second-most in a single season in Buccaneers franchise history.

In his three seasons as defensive coordinator from 2019-2021, he transformed the unit into one of the most productive defenses in the NFL. Tampa Bay ranked third in the league in takeaways (82) and third in sacks (142), joining the Pittsburgh Steelers as the only teams to place in the top five of both categories. In addition to the sacks and takeaways under Bowles' guidance as defensive coordinator, the Buccaneers ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (82.5), first in rushing yards per attempt (3.72), first in quarterback hits (352), first in defensive fumble recoveries (37), first in passes defended (241), second in strip sacks (26), third in tackles for loss (262), fourth in forced fumbles (52), tied for fourth in defensive touchdowns (nine), fifth in fewest yards per play allowed (5.13), fifth in passing yards per attempt allowed (6.78), sixth in red zone defense efficiency (54.7%), seventh in lowest third-down conversion rate allowed (37.6%), ninth in total defense (334.1 yards allowed per game) and ninth in goal-to-go efficiency (68.6%).

From 2020-21, the Buccaneers allowed the sixth-fewest points per game (21.5) and the fifth-fewest yards per game (329.4). In six postseason contests during that span, Tampa Bay tallied 16 takeaways - seven more than any other team. Bowles was the architect behind a historic defensive performance that catapulted the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory. His unit held the explosive Kansas City Chiefs' offense to nine points and without a touchdown for the first time in 54 games with Patrick Mahomes as the starting quarterback.

In 2021 alone, Bowles led a defense that finished first in the NFL in quarterback hits (123), third in rush defense (92.5 ypg), fifth in fewest points per game allowed (20.8), tied for fifth in takeaways (29), seventh in sacks (47.0), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16), eighth in tackles for loss (81), tied for eighth in interceptions (17) and tied for eighth in forced fumbles (16). Four Buccaneers defensive players earned Pro Bowl honors in 2021: outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, nose tackle Vita Vea, linebacker Devin White and safety Antoine Winfield Jr. - the most in a single season on the defensive side of the ball since 2002.

SIDELINES

In Tampa Bay's championship season in 2020, Bowles directed a defense that led the NFL in quarterback hits (142), tackles for loss (107) and takeaways (34), while tying for the league lead in sacks (58.0) between the regular season and postseason combined. During the regular season alone, the Buccaneers' defense ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6), tied for second in quarterback hits (116), tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0), sixth in total yards allowed per game (3271) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2). Additionally, the Buccaneers defense allowed the fifth-fewest first downs (19.9) and tallied the seventh-most sacks per pass attempt (7.78%).

In just his first two seasons, Bowles helped elevate a Buccaneers defense that ranked 27th in the NFL in yards per game allowed prior to his arrival to a team that finished sixth in that category in 2020. In the Super Bowl, Tampa Bay held the Kansas City Chiefs to just nine points – keeping a team that ranked sixth during the regular season in touchdowns out of the end zone. The nine points given up by the Buccaneers tied for the 10th-fewest in Super Bowl history.

Bowles helped mentor Winfield Jr. into PFWA All-Rookie team honors in 2020 and coached outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul to his third career Pro Bowl selection.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2019, Bowles quickly put an emphasis on stopping the run as he transformed the Buccaneers from the 24th-ranked run defense in 2018 (123.9 rush yards allowed per game) to the top run defense in the NFL in 2019, holding opponents to just 73.8 rushing yards per game and just 3.26 average yards per rush. The 1,181 rushing yards allowed by Tampa Bay in 2019 were the 11th-fewest all-time in a 16-game season. The front seven showed a knack for getting into the opposing backfield, tying for fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss.

The Buccaneers also led the NFL with 96 passes defended in 2019, tied for the league lead with six defensive touchdowns, ranked third with 21 forced fumbles and finished fifth with 28 takeaways.

In the secondary, Bowles guided a group of predominantly first and second-year players to a notable second-half turnaround in which the defense reduced its passing yards allowed per game from 293.5 in Games 1-8 to 246.8 in Games 9-16, while lowering its total yards allowed per game mark from 371.6 to 316.3 in that same span. The 316.3 total yards allowed per game was the sixth-best mark of any defense over its final eight games of the season.

Bowles' 2019 defense featured three players who took home end-of-season honors, led by Pro Bowl and AP second-team All-Pro outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett. Barrett set a team record with his league-leading 19.5 sacks in 2019, breaking Pro Football Hall of Famer Warren Sapp's team record of 16.5 set in 2000. The defense also featured two AP All-Rookie Team members: Sean Murphy-Bunting and Devin White. White led all rookies with 7.0 tackles per game and Sean Murphy-Bunting tied for the most interceptions by a rookie with three.

Bowles joined the Buccaneers after spending the previous four seasons as the head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Bowles' Jets defense also allowed opposing offenses to convert only 36.0 percent of third downs, the fourth-lowest mark in the league. Opposing passers completed just 60.6 percent of their passes against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL.

Four different defensive players earned Pro Bowl berths under Bowles in New York, with cornerback Darrelle Revis and defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson being selected in 2015, defensive lineman Leonard Williams being nominated in 2016 and safety Jamal Adams voted to the game in 2018. The 2018 season also saw Jets return specialist Andre Roberts earn Pro Bowl distinction, along with being named first-team AP All-Pro as a kick returner.

Prior to serving as the head coach of the Jets, Bowles spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), including winning Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and the Associated Press in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals' defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), the fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and the fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for taking the ball away, recording the fifth-most interceptions in the NFL (38) and the most defensive touchdowns in the league, with nine.

While Bowles led the Cardinals' defense, he saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and earn Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) each also earned Pro Bowl selections.

Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012), serving as the team's secondary coach before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Philadelphia finished ninth in passing yards allowed (216.9 per game) that season.

Before joining the Eagles, Bowles worked as the assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Miami Dolphins for four seasons (2008-11). In the 2011 season, he was named interim head coach for the final three games of the year, going 2-1. Under Bowles' tutelage, Miami's secondary held opposing quarterbacks to a 58.1 completion percentage over that span, the seventh-lowest mark in the NFL.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bowles worked as the defensive backs coach for the Dallas Cowboys (2005-07), coaching three different players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, cornerback Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams).

His NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets, coaching a unit that allowed just 18.3 passing yards per game, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. Following his season in New York, Bowles spent four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's defensive nickel package coach (2001-03) and secondary coach (2004). In 2001, the team set a franchise record with 33 interceptions and in 2004, the Browns allowed the fifth-fewest passing yards in the NFL (181.3 per game).

Before coaching in the NFL, Bowles spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Morehouse College (1997) and two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998-99).

Bowles played collegiately at Temple and, despite going undrafted in the 1986 NFL Draft, played eight years in the NFL, with the Washington Redskins (1986-90; 1992-93) and the San Francisco 49ers (1991). He was a starter on the 1987 Redskins team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995-96) with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department.

A native of New Jersey, Bowles and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson. Todd Jr. currently plays collegiate football at Long Island, while Troy plays his collegiate football career at Georgia. The Bowles family is actively involved in the Tampa Bay community supporting organizations including Autism Speaks, The Spring of Tampa Bay, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay, and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation.

LIAM COEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Coen begins his first season as offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

Coen brings 14 years of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including four years at the NFL level - all with the Los Angeles Rams. He joins the Buccaneers from the University of Kentucky, where he served as the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the 2023 and 2021 seasons. Prior to his most recent stint with the Wildcats, Coen was the Rams' offensive coordinator in 2022 after spending time as the club's assistant quarterbacks coach (2020) and assistant wide receivers coach (2018-19).

During his time at the University of Kentucky, Coen put forth two of the highest-scoring single seasons in school history. The 2021 Wildcats team amassed 56 total touchdowns while the 2023 Wildcats team scored 50 total touchdowns - two of the six instances in the 108-year program history in which they have scored 50-or-more touchdowns in a single season. On top of the scoring production, Coen's teams were one of the most efficient in the SEC, amassing over 425 net yards of offense per game in 2021 and recording a school-record 8.0 yards per touch during the 2023 campaign. Coen helped bring the Wildcats to new heights, leading them to a combined 17 wins across his two seasons there, and contributing to the fourth 10-win season in school history.

In his two seasons at Kentucky, Coen coached a pair of quarterbacks who were drafted into the NFL in Will Levis (Tennessee Titans, 2023) and Devin Leary (Baltimore Ravens, 2024). The last Kentucky quarterback to be drafted and appear in an NFL game prior to Levis was Tim Couch (1999). Overall, as a collegiate coach, Coen has coached five different quarterbacks who earned at least a chance to compete for an NFL roster spot including: Dan Collins (Maine), Blake Frohnapfel (Massachusetts), Leary (Kentucky), Levis (Kentucky) and Kyle Newhall-Caballero (Brown). Additionally, under Coen's mentorship, wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson set school records in his final season with 104 receptions and 1,334 receiving yards in his final season in 2021 to earn All-SEC and All-America recognition from various outlets.

Holding multiple positions with the Rams from 2018-20 and 2022, Coen contributed to an offense that ranked among league leaders across those seasons in passing yards per game (248.1; sixth), completions (1,504; 10th), first downs per game (21.4; 10th), third-down conversion rate (41.9%; eighth), goal-to-go efficiency (75.2%; ninth), rushing touchdowns (77; fourth), and fewest sacks allowed (139; eighth).

As assistant wide receivers coach in 2018, Coen helped guide Robert Woods and Brandin Cooks, who each topped 1,200 yards that season on the way to a Super Bowl appearance. The following year, Woods and Cooper Kupp each surpassed 1,100 receiving yards, marking the latter's first 1,000-yard campaign. In 2022, Coen worked with quarterback Baker Mayfield for five games, including a Week 14 Thursday night victory over the Las Vegas Raiders, for which Mayfield earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week Honors after orchestrating a game-winning drive with less than a minute remaining, just two days after joining the organization.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Coen spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine (2016-17). He came to the University of Maine from the University of Massachusetts (2014-15), where he had served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. Coen also spent three years as the quarterbacks coach at Brown University (2010, 2012-13) and one year as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at the University of Rhode Island (2011).

Before getting into coaching, Coen played quarterback at the University of Massachusetts. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2022 and holds the program records for completions (830), attempts (1,302), completion percentage (63.7), passing yards (11,031), yards per attempt (8.5), passing touchdowns (90), and passer rating (150.7). He graduated in 2008 with a degree in communications. A native of Wakefield, Rhode Island, Coen and his wife, Ashley, have two sons, Jackson and Callahan.

LARRY FOOTE
PASS GAME COORDINATOR/INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Larry Foote enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers in 2023, and his third as pass game coordinator/inside linebackers coach, following three seasons as the team's outside linebackers coach.

In 2023, 12-year veteran inside linebacker Lavonte David was the lone NFL player with 100+ tackles, 15+ tackles for loss and 3.0+ sacks and he collected his tenth 100-tackle season, leading the Buccaneers in total tackles (133), solo tackles (86) and tackles for loss (17). His 17 tackles for loss tied for seventh in the NFL in 2023 and first among non-edge rushers. In two seasons with Foote as his position coach (2022-23), David ranks tied for 10th in solo tackles (166) and 11th in total tackles (258) among all players, while generating the second-most tackles for loss (27) among inside linebackers during that span. As a unit, the Buccaneers 2023 defense ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023.

In his first season as pass game coordinator in 2022, Tampa Bay's pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards/game) finished ninth in the NFL, posting the team's first season with a top 10 pass defense since 2010. The Buccaneers limited opponents to just 6.65 yards per pass attempt, which was the sixth-best mark in the league.

Additionally, during Foote's first season working with the inside linebackers in 2022, both David and Devin White surpassed the 100-tackle mark, finishing tied for the team lead with 124 tackles each. David led the team with 10 tackles for loss, while White led the team with 16 quarterback hits and three fumble recoveries. White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for September and later tacked on NFC Defensive Player of the Week accolades for his multi-sack performance in Week 10.

In 2021, outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett earned a Pro Bowl selection for the second time after recording 10.0 sacks and becoming one of four players in Buccaneers history with multiple 10.0-sack seasons - both of which came under Foote for Barrett.

In Barrett's three seasons with Foote as his position coach from 2019-21, Barrett ranked second in the NFL in strip sacks (11), fourth in sacks (37.5), fourth in tackles for loss (41), tied for fourth in forced fumbles (11) and fifth in quarterback hits (75), joining 2021 Defensive Player of the Year T.J. Watt as the only two players to rank in the top five in each of those five categories during that span.

Over his first two seasons after taking over in Tampa from 2020-21, Foote's starting outside linebacker tandem of Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul ranked second among all pass-rushing duos in sacks with 45.5. During the 2020 regular season alone, the pairing combined for 112 tackles (18 tackles for loss), 30 quarterback hits, 17.5 sacks, nine passes defended, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Pierre-Paul earned his first Pro Bowl nod as a member of the Buccaneers in the 2020 season.

During the 2020 regular season, the Buccaneers' defense ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6), tied for second in quarterback hits (116), tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0), sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2).

Foote's outside linebackers unit continued to thrive during Tampa Bay's four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, including a 5.0-sack performance in the NFC Championship Game victory over Green Bay. In that game, Barrett tied the single-game playoff franchise record with 3.0 sacks, while Pierre-Paul's 2.0 sacks tied for the third-most in team history. Barrett stands tied for third all-time in career playoff sacks by a Buccaneers player with his 4.0 from 2020, while Pierre-Paul is tied for fifth with 2.0.

In Foote's first season in charge of the Buccaneers outside linebacker corps, the position group combined for 35 of the team's 47 sacks. Those 47 takedowns were then the second-most by a Tampa Bay unit since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Barrett secured his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2019 after registering 19.5 sacks to surpass Warren Sapp (16.5 in 2000) for the single-season franchise record. While Barrett led the league in sacks in his first season under Foote's guidance, Jason Pierre-Paul tacked on 8.5 sacks in just 10 games played.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Foote spent the previous four seasons coaching with the Arizona Cardinals (2015-18), first working as the team's inside linebackers coach (2015-17) before being elevated to linebackers coach in 2018. Foote helped oversee the conversion of Deone Bucannon from a college safety to a linebacker, with Bucannon leading the team in tackles in 2015, while adding three sacks and three forced fumbles. The Cardinals defense finished in the top 10 of the NFL in yards allowed for three straight seasons (2015-17) while Foote was a part of the staff.

Before beginning his coaching career, Foote spent 13 years playing in the NFL (2002-14), including 11 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-08, 2010-13). During his time with the Steelers, Foote was a part of two Super Bowl Championships (XL, XLIII). Foote spent his first seven seasons in Pittsburgh, before playing for his hometown Detroit Lions for one season (2009). He then returned to the Steelers for four seasons before finishing his career with the Cardinals in 2014. In his 13 seasons, Foote played in 187 games, with 912 tackles, 25 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and four interceptions. He also played in 17 postseason games.

A Detroit native, Foote played collegiately at Michigan, earning All-American honors as a senior.

THOMAS MCGAUGHEY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Thomas McGaughey enters his first season as special teams coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

McGaughey joined Tampa Bay with 17 years of NFL coaching experience, including nine as a special teams coordinator for the New York Giants (2018-23), Carolina Panthers (2016-17), San Francisco 49ers (2015) and New York Jets (2014). He held previous roles in the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Giants (2007-10), Denver Broncos (2005-06) and Kansas City Chiefs (2002). In addition, McGaughey spent six total seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks at Louisiana State University (2011-13) and the University of Houston (1997, 2003-04).

Over the past six seasons with the Giants, McGaughey has found success working with the kicker position as New York ranked sixth from 2018-23 in team field goal percentage (87.1%). From 50 yards or more, the Giants converted 29-of-38 field goal attempts during that span, ranking second in 50+-yard field goal percentage (76.3%) and fourth in total 50+-yard field goals made. In 2022 alone, Graham Gano set a new single-season franchise record with eight 50+-yard field goals made, while in 2018, McGaughey coached Aldrick Rosas to a franchise record for single-season field goal percentage (97.0%), earning him his first Pro Bowl selection. Former NFL safety Michael Thomas also reached the Pro Bowl in 2018 under McGaughey's guidance, leading the team with nine special teams tackles.

From 2018-23, McGaughey's special teams group also ranked fifth in the NFL in fewest opponent yards per kick return (21.2) and ninth in fewest opponent yards per punt return (7.8).

McGaughey was a member of the coaching staff for the Super Bowl XLII championship team in 2007 during his initial stint with the Giants. The following year, all three specialists earned Pro Bowl recognition under McGaughey: kicker John Carney, punter/holder Jeff Feagles and long snapper Zak DeOssie.

In his playing career, McGaughey spent time with the Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles in 1996 prior to landing with the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe in 1997, winning the World Bowl that season.

McGaughey was a two-sport athlete at the University of Houston (1991-95), competing in both football and track and field. He was named a special teams captain on the football team in his senior season. Following his playing career, McGaughey returned to Houston as a graduate assistant in 1997 before taking a job as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Willowridge High School (Houston) from 1998-2001.

McGaughey has two sons, Thomas (Trey) and Trenton, and one daughter, Taylor.

KACY RODGERS

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE LINE

Kacy Rodgers enters his sixth season as defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024, and his third season as run game coordinator.

For the fourth time in five seasons with Rodgers on staff, the Buccaneers finished as a top five run defense in 2023, limiting opponents to 95.3 rush yards per contest. Tampa Bay also kept its opponents below 4.0 yards per carry, marking the third time accomplishing that feat in Rodgers' five years with the team. In addition, the Buccaneers defense finished second in fumble recoveries (12), tied for fourth in strip sacks (9), sixth in forced fumbles (18), tied for sixth in fewest touchdowns allowed (34), sixth in tackles for loss (91) and tied for seventh in sacks (48.0). In the red zone, Tampa Bay led the league in tackles for loss (25), while ranking tied for second in in-run touchdowns allowed (23), second in sacks (8.0) and fifth in fewest yards per play against (2.3).

After a career year in 2021, nose tackle Vita Vea re-established career highs across the board in 2022, with a team-high 6.5 sacks, in addition to 13 quarterback hits, seven tackles for loss, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Rodgers' front limited opponents to the sixth-worst third-down conversion rate (36.9%), in addition to the defense finishing fifth in the NFL in fewest first downs allowed per game (18.5), tied for sixth in tackles for loss (89), tied for seventh in sacks (45.0), tied for ninth in fewest opponent yards per game (324.3) and 10th in fewest opponent yards per play (5.1). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Buccaneers also ranked second in three-and-outs, fourth in creating second-and-8+ and sixth in defensive stops behind the line of scrimmage.

In 2021, Rodgers coached Vea to the first Pro Bowl of his career, after he posted or tied career highs in solo tackles (22), sacks (4.0), quarterback hits (12) and tackles for loss (five). Rodgers' unit was the front line for a defense that finished third in the NFL in run defense, allowing just 92.5 rushing yards per game. It marked the third consecutive season under Rodgers in which the Buccaneers finished top three in the NFL in run defense. In addition, Tampa Bay led the league in quarterback hits (123) and finished seventh in sacks (47.0), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16) and eighth in tackles for loss (81).

In his second season in Tampa Bay, Rodgers earned John Teerlinck Defensive Line Coach of the Year honors in 2020 – an award given annually to the league's top defensive line coach, as voted on by coaches across the league. He led a Super-Bowl winning defensive line unit that led the NFL against the run for the second consecutive season, limiting opponents to 80.6 rushing yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry in the regular season. Tampa Bay held its opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards an NFL-best 12 times in 2020. In Super Bowl LV, the Buccaneers defense kept the Chiefs offense out of the endzone, while tallying a Super Bowl-record 29 quarterback pressures.

Additionally, the Buccaneers tallied 48.0 regular season sacks in 2020 – the second-most in team history – and 58.0 total sacks between the regular season and postseason combined, which tied for the NFL lead. Under Rodgers' guidance, veteran defensive lineman William Gholston had a career-high 20 quarterback hits in 2020, the sixth-most in the NFL by an interior defensive lineman in 2020. Ndamukong Suh also recorded 6.0 sacks in 2020 – his most in a season since 2015 – and 19 quarterback hits, which ranked tied for seventh-most by an interior defensive lineman.

Under Rodgers' watch, the defensive line set the foundation for the NFL's top run defense, which limited its opponents to 73.8 rushing yards per game and 3.26 yards per carry in 2019. In his 10th NFL season, Ndamukong Suh posted single-season career highs with four fumble recoveries (43 return yards) and two defensive touchdowns. His four fumble recoveries tied for the second most in a single season in team history. Suh added 14 quarterback hits in 2019, which ranked seventh among all interior defensive linemen, while Vita Vea ranked 11th with 12 quarterback hits of his own. Additionally, the defensive line helped the Buccaneers defense to 47 sacks in 2019, which was the second highest single-season sack total in team history.

Rodgers spent four seasons serving as the defensive coordinator of the New York Jets (2015-18), working under Buccaneers Head Coach Todd Bowles, then the Jets' head coach. The Jets defense under Rodgers and Bowles posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Rodgers helped defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2015, after posting a career-high 12.0 sacks, and helped defensive lineman Leonard Williams – the team's 2015 first-round pick – earn a Pro Bowl berth in 2016. Under Rodgers, Williams posted the fifth-most quarterbacks hits of any interior defensive lineman (64) from 2015-18.

Prior to his time with the Jets, Rodgers spent seven seasons coaching the defensive line in Miami (2008-14). During his time with the Dolphins, the team posted 287 sacks, the third-highest mark in the NFL, while allowing the eighth-fewest yards per carry (4.02) during that span. Rodgers helped guide defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2012), defensive tackle Randy Starks (2010, 2012) and defensive end Cameron Wake (2010, 2012-14) to Pro Bowl selections. Wake, who also earned three AP All-Pro selections under Rodgers (first team, 2012; second team, 2010 and 2014), ranked third in the NFL in sacks from 2009-14, with 63.0.

Rodgers began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys, first working as the team's defensive tackles coach (2003-04) before taking over as the defensive line coach (2005-07). In four of Rodgers' five seasons in Dallas, the team ranked inside the NFL's top 10 for rush defense, notably finishing sixth in the league in 2007. He coached defensive tackle La'Roi Glover to three consecutive Pro Bowl appearances from 2003-05.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Rodgers coached collegiately, first working at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97) before going to Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002).

A native of Humboldt, Tennessee, Rodgers played collegiately at Tennessee. He spent training camp with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992 and played for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League in 1994 before retiring. Rodgers was inducted into the Gibson County Hall of Fame in 2004 and later the Humboldt Hall of Fame in 2018. Rodgers is the proud father to Kacy Rodgers II. Rodgers II and his wife, Alex, gave Rodgers his first grandchild, Kali.

TIM ATKINS

ASSISTANT SECONDARY

Tim Atkins begins his sixth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024, and his third as assistant secondary coach. He spent his first three seasons with Tampa Bay working as the team's defensive quality control coach.

In 2023, Atkins was a member of a secondary staff that oversaw a first-team All-Pro season from safety Antoine Winfield Jr., in which he amassed 122 tackles (six for loss), 12 passes defended, eight quarterback hits, 6.0 sacks, six forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and three interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense finished the year ranked seventh in scoring defense (19.1), while allowing the sixth-fewest opponent touchdowns (34).

During Atkins' first season as the assistant secondary coach for the Buccaneers in 2022, Tampa Bay finished sixth in the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed per attempt (6.65) and 10th in fewest total passing yards allowed (3,461). The 2022 opponent total marked the fewest passing yards allowed by the Buccaneers since the 2010 season when they allowed 3,216 yards. In addition, the Buccaneers defense combined for a total of 58 passes defended, 10 interceptions, and held opponent quarterbacks to a 63.9 completion percentage. Antoine Winfield Jr. tied for second in the NFL among safeties in both sacks (4.0) and tackles for loss (seven).

In Atkins' final season in charge of quality control efforts for the Buccaneers in 2021, Tampa Bay finished third in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per game (92.5), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16), fifth in goal-to-go efficiency (62.1 percent) and 10th in red zone efficiency (52.5 percent). In addition, the Buccaneers led the NFL in quarterback hits (123), ranked tied for fifth in takeaways (29), seventh in sacks (47.0), eighth in tackles for loss (81) and tied for eighth in forced fumbles (16).

During Tampa Bay's 2020 title season, Atkins contributed to a defense that led the league in rush defense (80.6 rush yards allowed per game) for the second-consecutive season, while also ranking sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2). Additionally, the Buccaneers defense allowed the fifth-fewest first downs (19.9) and tallied the seventh-most sacks per pass attempt (7.78%).

In his first year in Tampa Bay, Atkins led quality control efforts for a defense that finished first against the run and fifth in takeaways. In addition, Tampa Bay's defense made a noticeable second-half turnaround as it lowered its yards per game allowed average from 371.6 yards per game through the first eight games to 316.3 over the final eight games, which ranked eighth in the NFL from Weeks 9-17.

Atkins followed Buccaneers Head Coach Todd Bowles to Tampa Bay, who he worked under for three seasons (2016-18) as defensive quality control coach for the New York Jets. Prior to his time with the Jets, Atkins charted games for the Cleveland Browns for two seasons (2014-15) and served as a Buffalo Bills defensive assistant from 2011-12. That followed a one-season stint with the UFL's Florida Tuskers (2010). Atkins broke into the NFL as a defensive assistant for the Miami Dolphins from 2006-08 before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic University (2008-09). He also coached on the collegiate level for Whittier College as wide receivers coach (2005) and safeties coach (2004).

KEVIN CARBERRY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Kevin Carberry begins his first season as offensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

Carberry joined the Buccaneers after spending the 2023 season with the New Orleans Saints as the team's assistant offensive line coach. The Saints, led by Pro Bowl center Erik McCoy, tied for the fifth-fewest quarterback hits allowed in the NFL in 2023 (76), while limiting opponents to the eighth-fewest sacks (35).

Prior to his season in New Orleans, Carberry spent two seasons as the offensive line coach for the Los Angeles Rams during which he helped guide the Rams to a Super Bowl LVI victory to cap off the 2021 season. That season, Carberry's unit limited opposing defenses to the fourth-fewest quarterback hits (74) and tied for the sixth-fewest sacks allowed (31), in addition to ranking seventh in fewest sacks allowed per pass attempt (4.9%). In the 2021 playoffs, the Rams averaged 388.5 yards per game on the way to their Super Bowl title.

Carberry made his NFL coaching debut as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys in 2014. That season, he assisted an offensive unit that helped propel running back DeMarco Murray to a league-leading 1,845 rushing yards, in addition to winning the NFC East division title. Following his stint in Dallas (2014-15), Carberry joined Bill Callahan in Washington, where he spent two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach. In Washington in 2016, the team limited opponents to the fourth-fewest sacks (23) and boasted the NFL's third-ranked offense that season, averaging 403.4 yards per game. Brandon Scherff and Trent Williams each earned Pro Bowl trips under Carberry's tutelage.

In the collegiate ranks, Carberry has held coaching roles at Stanford (2018-20), Stephen F. Austin (2012-13) and Kansas (2009-11). As the offensive line coach at Stanford, Carberry coached four players to All-Pac-12 honors. The Cardinal finished 9-4 in 2018, winning the Sun Bowl. During the shortened 2020 season, Stanford went 4-2, ranking third in the Pac-12 with 420.0 yards of offense per game. He began his coaching career as a varsity assistant at his alma mater, St. Rita High School (Chicago), coaching them to an Illinois state title in 2006. He later coached two seasons at St. Ignatius College Prep (Chicago) while also playing in the AFL for the New York Dragons (2007) and Philadelphia Soul (2008), winning a 2008 Arena Bowl Championship in his lone year in Philadelphia.

Carberry competed in his first NFL training camp with the Cleveland Browns in 2005 before spending the season on the Detroit Lions practice squad. He later spent the 2006 training camp with the Carolina Panthers prior to landing with the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in the spring of 2006.

Carberry is a native of Oak Lawn, Illinois, and was a four-year player at Ohio University (2002-05), earning All-MAC honors as a senior. He later earned his Master's of Sport Administration degree from the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Emily, have one son, Frank, and one daughter, Elizabeth.

GEORGE EDWARDS

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Edwards begins his second season as outside linebackers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024. The 2024 season marks Edwards' 27th season of NFL coaching experience and his 35th overall.

In his first year with the Buccaneers, Edwards mentored rookie third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby to a team-high 7.5 sacks in 2023. Edwards' unit utilized a committee approach that proved effective as six different players at the outside linebacker position recorded a sack, including four with 3.0+ sacks. His position group totaled 22 sacks and six forced fumbles in 2023, while contributing to a defense that finished fifth in the NFL in rush defense by limiting opponents to just 95.3 rushing yards per contest.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Edwards spent the previous three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2020-22) as the club's senior defensive assistant, helping guide a defensive unit that ranked second in interceptions (52), fourth in opponent completion percentage (61.9), sixth in opponent passer rating (86.5) and eighth in sacks (126) over that span. He worked most closely with the team's linebackers, mentoring Cowboys linebacker Micah Parsons to two Pro Bowl selections, two Associated Press first-team All-Pro recognitions and 2021 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Edwards spent six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Minnesota Vikings (2014-19). After inheriting a defense that ranked 31st overall in total defense in 2013, Edwards propelled the Vikings into a consistent top five defense. From 2014-19, the Vikings ranked first in lowest opponent third-down conversion percentage (35.2%), second in fewest yards per play allowed (5.12), third in total defense (321.8 yards allowed per game), third in pass defense (214.7 yards per game) and third in sacks (260.0). Edwards' 2017 defense led the NFL in both total defense (275.9) and fewest points per game allowed (15.8), sparking the Vikings run to an NFC Championship game berth. It was Minnesota's first No. 1 defense since the 1993 season.

Previously, Edwards held roles as the linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins (2005-09, 2012-13), defensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2010-11), linebackers coach for the Cleveland Browns (2004), assistant defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Washington (2002-03), and linebackers coach for the Cowboys (1998-2001). Edwards has also held assistant positions at the collegiate level, including at the University of Georgia (1997), Duke University (1996), Appalachian State University (1992-95) and the University of Florida (1990-91).

A four-year letterman at Duke University, Edwards was a two-time special teams captain and earned 1989 All-ACC honorable mention recognition at linebacker. Edwards is a native of Siler City, North Carolina. He and his wife, Jami, have one son, Bryan.

Fitzgerald assisted Defensive Line Coach Kacy Rodgers in overseeing the development of rookie defensive lineman Calijah Kancey, who finished the season with 26 tackles (10 for loss), 12 quarterback hits and 4.0 sacks. He has also previously held offensive roles at Southeastern Louisiana (2017), University of Virginia's College at Wise (2016) and Eastern Kentucky (2015).

While in graduate school, Fitzgerald began his coaching career as a defensive intern and graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic from 2009-12, working with the defensive backs and linebackers, prior to spending two years at Mississippi State (2013-14) as a graduate assistant and offensive quality control coach. Cornerback Zyon McCollum also started a career high nine games in 2023 under Johnson's coaching, ranking second on the team with nine passes defended.

Johnson broke into coaching as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow with the Buccaneers during the 2022 offseason and was hired full-time as a defensive assistant following the conclusion of training camp. Additionally, the Buccaneers offense led the league in total receptions (499), ranked second in passing yards per game (269.8), and third in total passing first downs (240).

Kastl comes to Tampa Bay as offensive quality control coach following two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana State University (2020-21). THADDEUS LEWIS QUARTERBACKS

Thaddeus Lewis enters his second season as quarterbacks coach with the Buccaneers in 2024, after spending the prior two seasons as the team's assistant wide receivers coach.

In year one as Tampa Bay's quarterbacks coach, Lewis oversaw a Pro Bowl campaign for first-year Buccaneers quarterback Baker Mayfield, in which Mayfield set career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (63.4%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28) on his way to the 2023 Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award. Mayfield finished seventh in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for eighth in passing first downs (188), ninth in passing yards, 10th in completions (364) and 10th in touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.8). With Lewis' instruction, Mayfield was 1-of-2 quarterbacks - alongside Dak Prescott of the Dallas Cowboys - to put forth 4,000+ passing yards and 25+ passing touchdowns while throwing for 10-or-fewer interceptions in 2023. In the 2023 playoffs, Mayfield posted a 106.5 passer rating - the highest career postseason passer rating by any player in franchise history. Mayfield became the only quarterback in club history to throw for 300-or-more yards and three-or-more passing touchdowns in a postseason contest, and he did so in each of the team's playoff contests.

Lewis' final year working with the wide receivers saw both Mike Evans (1,124) and Chris Godwin (1,023) surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season. That duo is one of just three pairs of teammates across the NFL to have put forth back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons from 2020-21. In his return from ACL and MCL tears late in the 2021 season, Godwin set a career high with 104 receptions in 2022 - the second-most receptions in a single season in Buccaneers' team history. As a group, Tampa Bay wide receivers led the NFL in receptions (299) and ranked third among all wide receiver corps in yards (3,252) and first downs (166) for the league's second-ranked passing offense (269.8 pass yards per game).

In his first season as assistant wide receivers coach in 2021, Lewis worked alongside former wide receivers coach Kevin Garver to instruct the NFL's most-productive receiving corps, with Tampa Bay leading the league in receptions (492), receiving yards (5,383), receiving touchdowns (43) and receiving first downs (273). The Buccaneers had a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Mike Evans (1,035) and Chris Godwin (1,103). In 14 games played, Godwin finished second in team history with his 98 receptions, while Evans secured a Pro Bowl selection after setting a franchise record with 14 receiving touchdowns.

Lewis began his NFL coaching career in Tampa Bay during the 2020 season as a representative of the Bill Walsh coaching fellow program, during which he worked as an assistant to the offense during the Buccaneers Super Bowl LV championship season.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Lewis began his coaching career by spending two years as an offensive analyst at UCLA under Chip Kelly from 2018-19.

Lewis was a four-year starter at quarterback for Duke (2006-09), where he set school records for career passing yards (10,065) and passing touchdowns (67) and added nine rushing touchdowns. He also set Duke's program record for most consecutive pass attempts without an interception at 206. He was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award - presented to the nation's top quarterback - in his senior season in 2009. Lewis then went on to spend parts of eight seasons in the NFL (2010-17) with the St. Louis Rams, Cleveland Browns, Detroit Lions, Buffalo Bills, Houston Texans, Philadelphia Eagles, San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Ravens. He played in seven career games, making six starts, recording 115 completions for 1,296 passing yards and five passing touchdowns, adding one rushing touchdown.

Lewis is a native of Opa-locka, Florida.

TOM MOORE
SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Tom Moore enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers in 2024 and his 46th NFL season overall.

Moore instructed yet another quarterback to a Pro Bowl selection in 2023, as first-year Buccaneers quarterback Baker Mayfield set career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (63.4%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28), earning the Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award. Mayfield finished seventh in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for eighth in passing first downs (188), ninth in passing yards, 10th in completions (364) and 10th in touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.8). Mayfield joined Tom Brady (2022) as the only players in Tampa Bay's franchise history to put forth a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 25+ touchdown passes and 10-or-fewer interceptions - both seasons came under the mentorship of Moore.

During the 2023 offseason, Moore was recognized by the Pro Football Hall of Fame with an Award of Excellence for his contributions as an assistant coach in the league for over four decades.

Moore helped instruct quarterback Tom Brady in his final NFL season in 2022 – a season in which Brady finished third in the NFL with 4,694 passing yards, in addition to throwing 25 touchdown passes compared to just nine interceptions. In his three seasons working with Moore from 2020–22, Brady ranked second in passing yards (14,643), tied for third in passing touchdowns (108) and third in touchdown-to-interception ratio (3.27). He was one of just three quarterbacks to record 4,500+ passing yards and 25-or-more touchdowns in each of the past three seasons, joining Patrick Mahomes and Justin Herbert.

In 2021, Moore helped mentor Brady on his way to joining Drew Brees (2008) and Peyton Manning (2013) as the only players since 1991 to lead the league in passing yards, passing touchdowns, completions and attempts in a single season. Moore has overseen the league's passing leader four different times over the course of his NFL coaching career.

Moore has coached some of the NFL's best quarterbacks over his prolific career and 2020 was no different as Moore helped coach Brady to his NFL-record seventh Super Bowl title. Brady finished his first season in Tampa Bay ranked second in the league in completions (401), tied for second in touchdown passes (40), third in passing yards (4,633), sixth in passing touchdowns percentage (6.6) and seventh in touchdown-to-interception ratio (3.33). Brady's 40 passing touchdowns set a new franchise record and were the most by a player in his first season with a team in NFL history. The Buccaneers ranked third in the NFL in points scored per game (30.8), fourth in passing yards per game (298.5) and seventh in total offense (384.1).

In his first season in Tampa Bay, Moore worked with a Buccaneers offense that led the league in passing yards and ranked third in total offense. Quarterback Jameis Winston threw for 5,109 yards in 2019, marking the third time a quarterback had led the league in passing yards under Moore's guidance.

Moore's coaching career dates to 1961 when he accepted his first coaching position at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. Following 13 seasons at the collegiate level and one year in the World Football League, Moore made the jump to the NFL as a wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1977. Over his 39 seasons in the NFL, his teams have earned 24 postseason appearances, 15 division titles and five Super Bowl appearances (four wins). He has coached a multitude of Hall of Fame players including Peyton Manning, Lynn Swann, John Stallworth, Terry Bradshaw, Franco Harris, Mike Webster, Barry Sanders, Marshall Faulk, Randall McDaniel, Cris Carter, Marvin Harrison and Edgerrin James. Moore has coached alongside three Super Bowl-winning head coaches – Chuck Noll, Mike Ditka, and Tony Dungy – all of whom are enshrined in Canton.

Moore also spent 13 seasons coaching NFL legend Peyton Manning from 1998–2010, during which Manning posted franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns, and 4,682 completions. Additionally, Manning won four of his five NFL MVP Awards (2003–04, 2008–09) under Moore's tutelage.

After earning All-American honors as a quarterback at Rochester (Minn.) High School, Moore played at Iowa (1957–60), winning a Rose Bowl and Big 10 title in 1958, and earning a share of another conference title in 1960. He earned a bachelor's degree in history at Iowa and a master's degree in guidance counseling at Dayton. In 2005, Moore was inducted into the Rochester, Minnesota, Sports Hall of Fame and in 2014, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition for his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2015, Moore was honored with the Pro Football Writers of America Paul "Dr. Z" Zimmerman Award for lifetime achievement as assistant coach in the NFL.

Moore and his wife, Emily, have two children, daughter, Terry, and son, Dan.

JUSTIN PELLE TIGHT ENDS

Justin Peelle (pronounced 'peel') enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024 as tight ends coach.

Pellee came to Tampa Bay with 11 years of prior NFL coaching experience. He most recently served as tight ends coach for the Atlanta Falcons (2021-23), where he coached Kyle Pitts to a Falcons single-season rookie receiving yards record (1,026 yards) and a Pro Bowl selection in his first season. Pitts' 2021 season paired him with Pro Football Hall of Famer Mike Ditka (1,067 in 1961) as the only rookie tight ends to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in NFL history.

In 2023, Peelle's unit collectively led the league in receiving yards by a tight ends group (1,380), while ranking fifth in receptions (114) and tying for ninth as a group in touchdown receptions (seven).

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Peelle spent the previous six seasons as tight ends coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (2015-20) after beginning his NFL coaching career as an assistant tight ends coach with the Eagles from 2013-14. In Philadelphia, Peelle played a vital role in the development of three-time Pro Bowl tight end Zach Ertz. Peelle guided Ertz through his first eight NFL seasons, highlighted by a Super Bowl LII championship, in which Ertz hauled in the game-winning touchdown. In 2018, Ertz claimed the NFL record for single-season receptions by a tight end (116), a record that still stands to this day.

Coaching one of the NFL's best tight end duos from 2018-20 - Ertz and Dallas Goedert - Peelle's unit in Philadelphia led the league in both receptions (417) and receiving yards (4,388) during that span, in addition to ranking third in touchdown receptions (31).

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Peelle enjoyed a 10-year NFL career of his own, appearing in 151 career games. He entered the league as a fourth-round selection (No. 103 overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 2002 NFL Draft, where he played for four seasons (2002-05) before going on to play for the Miami Dolphins (2006-07), Falcons (2008-10) and San Francisco 49ers (2011).

Peelle played collegiately at Oregon (1998-2001), earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior. He and his wife, Sara, have two sons, Morris and Thompson, and one daughter, Ada.

SKIP PEEETE RUNNING BACKS

Peete begins his second season as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2023, Peete coached second-year running back Rachaad White to a breakout season in which he recorded the fourth-most scrimmage yards among running backs (1,539) and tied for the seventh-most among all players, contributing 990 yards rushing and 549 yards receiving. White was 1-of-6 players to finish the season with 1,500+ scrimmage yards and nine-or-more touchdowns, joining Breece Hall, Tyreek Hill, CeeDee Lamb, Christian McCaffrey and Amon-Ra St. Brown. Among all running backs, White not only finished fourth in scrimmage yards, but also ranked first in catch percentage (91.4%), second in yards after catch (611), third in receiving yards and fourth in receptions (64). He also tied for the fourth-most 100-yard scrimmage games among running backs in 2023.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Peete spent the previous three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2020-22) as the team's running backs coach, leading a rushing attack that ranked fifth in yards after contact per rush (3.31), ninth in rushing touchdowns (53), 10th in rushing yards (6,205) and 11th in rushing yards per game (124.1).

In the 2022 campaign, the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (24) and eighth in rushing yards (2,298), while converting 63.9% of the team's third-down rush attempts -the fourth-highest rate in the league. The Cowboys were one of two teams whose running backs did not commit a fumble during the 2022 regular season, despite recording the sixth-most carries in the league.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Peete served as the running backs coach for the Los Angeles Rams (2016-19), coaching Todd Gurley to two Pro Bowl selections, two first-team All-Pro selections and 2017 Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year honors. During his four seasons with Peete as his position coach, Gurley ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (48) and second in rushing yards (4,298).

In his two seasons as the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears (2013-14), Peete's top back, Matt Forte, led the NFL in scrimmage yards (3,779) and ranked fourth in rushing yards (2,377). Forte also set a record in 2014 for the most receptions by a running back in a single season (102).

Peete broke into the NFL coaching ranks as the running backs coach for the Oakland Raiders (1998-2006) before beginning his first stint in the same position with the Cowboys (2007-12). He also held collegiate positions as the running backs coach at UCLA (1996-97), wide receivers coach at Rutgers University (1995), wide receivers coach at Michigan State University (1993-94), running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1991-92) and wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1988-90).

Peete is a native of Phoenix, Arizona. He and his wife, Rebeca, have twins, Gisele and Reeco. He is the son of Willie Peete, who spent three seasons with the Buccaneers as the team's running backs coach (1992-94). His brother, Rodney, played 16 seasons in the NFL at quarterback for the Detroit Lions, Dallas Cowboys, Philadelphia Eagles, Washington, Oakland Raiders and Carolina Panthers.

NICK RAPONE

SAFETIES

Nick Rapone begins his sixth season as safeties coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

With Rapone's coaching, Antoine Winfield Jr. put forth an Associated Press first-team All-Pro season in 2023, which also included first-team All-Pro accolades from Pro Football Focus, an NFC Defensive Player of the Month honor (December/January) and Good Morning Football's 'Undisputed Best Defensive Back in the League' distinction. In his fourth season, Winfield Jr. amassed 122 tackles (six for loss), 12 passes defended, eight quarterback hits, 6.0 sacks, six forced fumbles four fumble recoveries and three interceptions. He finished the year with a share of the league lead in both forced fumbles and fumble recoveries, joining Haason Reddick (2022) as the only players to accomplish that feat since at least 2000. Among defensive backs in 2023, Winfield Jr. finished first in sacks, first in forced fumbles, first in fumble recoveries, tied for third in takeaways (seven) and third in quarterback hits. He earned a 91.2 grade from Pro Football Focus, putting him as the league's highest-graded safety in 2023.

In 2022, Winfield Jr. finished tied for second in the NFL among defensive backs with 4.0 sacks, bringing his career total to 9.0, which stands as the most career sacks by a safety in Buccaneers history. In addition to applying pressure to the quarterback, three of Tampa Bay's top six tackle-getters were safeties: Mike Edwards (82), Winfield Jr. (80) and Keanu Neal (61). Rapone's group contributed to a defense that finished sixth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per pass attempt (6.65) and ninth in pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards per game).

With Rapone as his position coach, Winfield Jr. joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Troy Polamalu as the only defensive backs since at least 2000 with 200+ tackles, 5.0-or-more sacks, four-plus interceptions and a Pro Bowl selection in their first three career seasons.

With Rapone leading the unit in 2021, the Buccaneers safeties combined to contribute seven interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries for a defense that ranked tied for fifth in the NFL in takeaways. The team's leader in takeaways, Winfield Jr. (three fumble recoveries, two interceptions), earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2021 in just his second NFL season. Winfield Jr. became the first Buccaneers defensive back to be named to the Pro Bowl since Darrelle Revis in 2013.

The Buccaneers safety group became a reliable unit for Tampa Bay's defense under Rapone's guidance during the 2020 season, as stating safeties Jordan Whitehead and Winfield Jr. both started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. Rapone helped oversee the development of Winfield Jr. as he earned PFWA All-Rookie honors in his first season in Tampa Bay, while also being named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Month in September of 2020.

Winfield and Whitehead finished third and fourth, respectively, on the team in tackles during the 2020 regular season, contributing a combined 165 tackles (10 for loss), 10 passes defended, seven quarterback hits, 5.0 sacks, three interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Winfield joined Jamal Adams as the only NFL defensive backs with 75-or-more tackles and 3.0+ sacks in 2020.

The safeties continued to make an impact during Tampa Bay's four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, as Mike Edwards, Whitehead and Winfield combined for three forced fumbles and two interceptions in the postseason for a defense that led the NFL with nine postseason takeaways.

In 2019, Rapone tutored a safety unit that overcame a slew of injuries to help Tampa Bay's defense shift from the 23rd-ranked defense through eight games to the eighth-best in the NFL over the final eight games (Weeks 10-17). Second-year safety Jordan Whitehead ranked tied for second on the team in run tackles with 25 on the year, helping to lead the NFL's top-ranked run defense.

Rapone was the defensive backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 2013-17. While in Arizona, Rapone worked with cornerback Patrick Peterson, a five-time Pro Bowl choice and a two-time first-team AP All-Pro selection (2013, 2015). Rapone also coached safety Tyrann Mathieu, who earned Pro Bowl and first-team AP All-Pro distinction in 2015.

During Rapone's time with Arizona, the team's pass defense was among the best in the NFL, holding opponents to a 61.0 completion percentage, the ninth-lowest mark in the league, and an 83.2 passer rating, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. The Cardinals were also one of the best teams in the NFL at intercepting passes, with the team's 86 interceptions ranking third during that span and their 14 interceptions returned for touchdowns tying for the league best.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rapone spent over 30 years as an assistant coach at the collegiate level. From 2006-12, he worked as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Delaware, earning the 2010 FootballScoop NCAA Division I FCS Coordinator of the Year after the Blue Hens led the FCS in scoring defense and ranking fifth in total defense.

A native of New Castle, Pennsylvania, Rapone played collegiately at Virginia Tech (1974-77). While with the Hokies, he played with Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians in 1974, when Rapone was a freshman and Arians was a senior. Arians then worked as a graduate assistant (1975-76) and running backs coach (1977) while Rapone played.

Rapone began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh (1979-80), before going on to East Tennessee State (1981-82). Rapone reunited with Arians at Temple, coaching the Owls' secondary for six seasons (1983-88), while also serving as the team's defensive coordinator (1985-88). Following his time under Arians at Temple, Rapone returned to Pittsburgh (1989-92), then spent two seasons at New Castle (Pa.) High School (1993-94), before four seasons at Connecticut (1995-98). Rapone returned to Temple for a second stint in 1999, working as the school's secondary coach until his tenure at Delaware.

KEVIN ROSS CORNERBACKS COACH

Kevin Ross begins his sixth season as cornerbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

With Ross' coaching, former 2022 fifth-round selection Zyon McCollum stepped up to set career highs in games played (17), games started (nine), passes defended (nine) and forced fumbles (two) in 2023 for a defense that lost nine starts due to injury from its starting cornerbacks.

In 2022, Ross' cornerback unit held a pair of Pro Bowl receivers in DeAndre Hopkins (four receiving yards) and CeeDee Lamb (29 yards) to season-low performances, in addition to limiting a number of notable pass-catchers across the league to under 50 yards receiving including: George Kittle (28 yards), Tee Higgins (33 yards), Tyler Lockett (42 yards) and Deebo Samuel (43 yards). In addition, Ross helped the continued development of cornerback Jamel Dean as he solidified his role as a full-time starter in 2022, starting a career-high 15 games on his way to earning a second contract in Tampa Bay. As a team, Tampa Bay finished ninth in the NFL in pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards per game) and sixth in fewest yards allowed per pass attempt (6.65).

Due to injuries, the Buccaneers were forced to use 10 different players at the cornerback position in 2021 and went through 14 different starting lineup combinations among defensive backs in 17 games. Despite the constant changes in rotation, with Ross' coaching, five different primary cornerbacks were able to record at least one interception in 2021 for a team that finished eighth in the NFL in that category with 18. Tampa Bay's defense also limited opponents to 6.39 yards per attempt and 5.16 yards per play in 2021 - the third-best and fifth-best marks, respectively, in the league.

In 2020, Ross led one of the NFL's youngest cornerback units to a Super Bowl LV championship as corners Carlton Davis III, Jamel Dean and Sean Murphy-Bunting all made significant strides over the course of the 2020 season. The trio helped the Buccaneers to rank eighth in the league in yards allowed per pass play (6.39) – a statistic the team ranked 31st in prior to the arrival of Ross and the new coaching staff in 2019.

Davis registered new career highs with his four interceptions and 68 tackles during the 2020 regular season, in addition to his team-high 18 passes defended. Dean played in a career-high 14 games, starting seven, while tallying 59 tackles (two for loss), seven passes defended and an interception, which he returned for a touchdown. Murphy-Bunting played a critical role in the team's success during its four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, as he collected an interception in each of Tampa Bay's first three postseason games. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Aeneas Williams (four-consecutive games) and Ed Reed, as well as Jason Sehorn, as the only four players in the Super Bowl era with an interception in each of their first three career postseason games. His three postseason interceptions are tied for the most in team history, while Tampa Bay's nine takeaways in the postseason led all teams.

Mentoring a young cornerback unit in 2019, Ross helped guide Murphy-Bunting to a PFWA All-Rookie selection after leading the team with three interceptions (returned for 88 yards and one touchdown), adding eight passes defended, one forced fumble, 1.0 sack and one tackle for loss. His cornerback counterparts, Carlton Davis and Jamel Dean, ranked second and tied for fourth in the league with 19 and 17 passes defended, respectively. As a team, the Buccaneers defense led the NFL with 96 passes defended in 2019.

Ross worked most recently with the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17), serving as the team's cornerbacks coach. During his tenure with the Cardinals, Ross worked with All-Pro cornerback Patrick Peterson, who earned a Pro Bowl berth in all five years under Ross, as well as two first-team AP All-Pro selections (2013, 2015). Ross also coached cornerback Antonio Cromartie to a Pro Bowl berth in 2014.

During Ross' time with Arizona, the team's pass defense was among the best in the NFL, holding opponents to a 61.0 completion percentage, the ninth-lowest mark in the league, and an 83.2 passer rating, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. The Cardinals were also one of the best teams in the NFL at intercepting passes, with the team's 86 interceptions ranking third during that span and their 14 interceptions returned for touchdowns tying for the league best.

Prior to joining Arizona, Ross coached safeties with the Oakland Raiders (2010-11), with safety Tyvon Branch leading the team in tackles both seasons. His time with Oakland followed one season as an assistant for the New York Sentinels of the United Football League (2009). From 2007-08, Ross was an assistant secondary/quality control coach with the San Diego Chargers. In 2007, San Diego led the NFL in interceptions for the first time in franchise history.

Ross began his NFL coaching career with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002 as part of the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship. From 2003-05, he worked as the Vikings' assistant secondary coach.

A 14-year NFL veteran and two-time Pro Bowl selection, Ross was a seventh-round (173rd overall) selection of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1984 NFL Draft. KEITH TANDY

DEFENSIVE/SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Keith Tandy begins his fifth season as defensive/special teams assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

Tandy coached rookie defensive back Josh Hayes to a league-leading 14 special teams tackles in 2023, the most by any Tampa Bay player in a single season since 2014. Hayes also became the first Buccaneer to lead the league in special teams tackles since Dwight Smith tied for the league lead in 2001. Additionally, Tandy guided new Buccaneers kicker Chase McLaughlin to a franchise single-season record for field goal percentage (93.5%) and punter Jake Camarda to a team single-season record for yards per punt (50.1). Camarda led the league in punts of 60+ yards with 18, while McLaughlin ranked tied for seventh in field goal percentage on the year, converting 29-of-31 field goals attempted and all 33 extra-points attempted.

During the 2022 season, Tandy helped develop a number of rookies into core special teams players, with Buccaneers rookies leading all NFL rookie classes in total special teams tackles (44) and finishing with the fifth-most special teams snaps as a class (1,506). Individually, rookie tight end Ko Kieft recorded 11 special teams tackles, which tied for the third-most among all rookies in 2022. Tandy also helped to mold a punt return unit that finished second in the NFL in total return yards (391) and 10th in punt return average (10.3 yards per return).

In 2021, Tandy helped develop and mentor rookie wide receiver Jaelon Darden into becoming the team's leader in both kick returning (359) and punt returning (142). His 359 kickoff return yards were the most by a Buccaneers' returner since Bobby Rainey in 2015. Darden's 43-yard punt return in Week 7 was the eighth-longest punt return by any player during the 2021 NFL season.

Tandy was a member of the coaching staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship season in his first year with the team in 2020. During the team's playoff run, Tandy assisted with a special teams unit that helped Jaydon Mickens set a franchise record for the most kickoff return yards in a single postseason, with 222. Mickens' 121 kick return yards in the NFC Championship Game vs. Green Bay also set a single-game franchise playoff record. In Week 3 of the regular season, Patrick O'Connor blocked a Denver Broncos' punt, marking the team's first punt block since December 27, 2015.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Tandy most recently worked at his alma mater, West Virginia, as an intern with the football program, after beginning his coaching career at Bishop McLaughlin Catholic High School in Spring Hill, Florida in 2019.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Tandy enjoyed a seven-year NFL career as a safety with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-17) and Atlanta Falcons (2018). Over 90 career games, including 15 starts, Tandy amassed 179 tackles, 14 passes defended, eight interceptions, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and 1.0 sack. Tandy was also played a key role on special teams throughout his career, recording multiple special teams tackles in each of his six seasons with the Buccaneers.

Tandy entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (174th overall), following his collegiate career as defensive back for West Virginia, in which he recorded 188 tackles (eight for loss), 13 interceptions, 37 passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery over 45 career games (2008-11) on his way to two first team All-Big East selections. He graduated from West Virginia in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in Biology.

A native of Hopkinsville, Ky., and the youngest of four, Tandy was a three-sport athlete at Christian County High School, playing football, basketball and baseball. He threw a single-season record 32 touchdown passes as a senior in 2007.

He and his wife, Melissa, have three children, Julian, Penelope and Gianna.

JOHN VAN DAM PASS GAME ASSISTANT

John Van Dam begins his sixth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024, and his first as pass game assistant.

Leading the tight ends room in 2023, Van Dam coached second-year tight end Cade Otton to career highs in receptions (47), receiving yards (455) and receiving touchdowns (four). In the playoffs, Otton led the team with 13 receptions, amassing 154 yards and a touchdown reception. His 154 yards were the second-most by a Tampa Bay player in a single postseason, trailing only Cameron Brate's 175 receiving yards during the Buccaneers run to a Super Bowl LV title following the 2020 season.

In Van Dam's first season as tight ends coach for the Buccaneers in 2022, he led a group of tight ends that combined for a total of 72 receptions for 673 yards and four touchdowns. Individually, Otton led all rookies at his position in receptions (42), ranked third in receiving yards (391), and fourth in receiving yards per game (24.4). Otton's 42 receptions were the second-most by a rookie tight end in franchise history.

In 2021, Van Dam served as assistant tight ends coach - his first season working specifically with that unit. Tampa Bay's tight end corps combined for 1,182 receiving yards and 11 receiving touchdowns in 2021 for an offense that finished first in each of those categories as a team. Individually, tight end Rob Gronkowski finished third among all tight ends with 66.8 receiving yards per game, and his 55 receptions and 802 receiving yards were each his most in a season since 2017.

Van Dam was promoted from offensive quality control coach to assistant tight ends coach following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship season in 2020. During the 2020 season, Van Dam assisted the league's second-ranked scoring offense (30.2 offensive points per game). The Buccaneers scored 30-or-more points in 12 games between the regular season and postseason - including seven-consecutive 30-point games to finish the season - which were the second-most such games in the NFL in 2020. Tampa Bay ranked fourth in the NFL with a +137 point differential during the regular season. In addition to the scoring, the Buccaneers finished fourth in passing yards per game (298.5), seventh in total offense (384.1), seventh in red zone efficiency (68.9%), seventh in yards per play (6.0) and 10th in first downs per game (22).

In his first season handling quality control efforts for the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay finished first in the league in passing offense (302.8 ypg), third in total offense (397.9 ypg) and tied for third in points scored per game (28.6 ppg). Van Dam spent a lot of time working closely with the tight end and quarterback groups, where starting quarterback Jameis Winston threw for a franchise record 5,109 yards passing and 33 touchdowns.

Van Dam came to Tampa Bay from Lafayette (Pa.) College, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018. Prior to that, Van Dam was the offensive coordinator for Southern Illinois for two seasons (2016-17). In 2016, the Salukis led the Missouri Valley Conference in total offense (470.2 yards per game), ranked second in points per game (30.9), and set a school record and led the Missouri Valley Conference in passing yards in a season with 3,660.

Before arriving at Southern Illinois, Van Dam served as offensive quality control assistant and assistant quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida in 2015 and served in a similar role at the University of Michigan in 2014. That followed two seasons at the University of Alabama, where he was an offensive graduate assistant, primarily working with wide receivers and running the offensive and special teams scout teams. During his time with the Crimson Tide, the program won the SEC title in 2012 and the 2013 BCS National Championship. Van Dam was also a graduate assistant and tight ends coach at Augustana (SD) College in 2008 and 2009 before being promoted to wide receivers coach in 2010 and 2011.

A native of East Lansing, Mich., Van Dam played quarterback at Michigan State, where he earned Academic All-Big 10 honors from 2006-08. He and his wife, Heather, have three children - daughters, Vada and Julia, and a son, Joseph.

MIKE GREENBERG ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Greenberg enters his 15th season with the Buccaneers and second as Assistant General Manager. Prior to his promotion, Greenberg spent two seasons as the vice president of football administration after eight seasons as director of football administration and two seasons as the coordinator of football administration. He originally joined the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Jason Licht on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching, scouting, video, athletic training, equipment, groundskeeping, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

Working in tandem with Vice President of Football Research Jacqueline Davidson, Greenberg and his staff pieced together yet another noteworthy free agency haul in 2024, re-signing four of the NFL's top free agents in linebacker Lavonte David, wide receiver Mike Evans, quarterback Baker Mayfield and safety Antoine Winfield Jr., in addition to bringing back safety Jordan Whitehead, who was formerly a starter on the team's Super Bowl LV championship team. After managing to keep the team's core in place following its run to the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, Greenberg also helped add a number of value free agents including cornerback Bryce Hall, offensive linemen Ben Bredeson and Sua Opeta and wide receiver Sterling Shepard.

Greenberg received critical acclaim for his work this offseason, helping the Buccaneers navigate a challenging salary cap situation while re-signing key members of the team and retooling the club's roster through a series of value signings. Despite financial restraints, Greenberg orchestrated the extension of outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, plus the re-signing of cornerback Jamel Dean and linebacker Lavonte David, two of the NFL's top available free agents heading into the 2023 offseason. In addition, Greenberg advised on negotiations in the signings of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield, running back Chase Edmonds, defensive lineman Greg Gaines and kicker Chase McLaughlin.

In the 2022 offseason, Greenberg worked to sign several free agents, including wide receiver Russell Gage and defensive lineman Akiem Hicks. Greenberg also played a key role in negotiating contracts to re-sign cornerback Carlton Davis III, Pro Bowl receiver Chris Godwin, and Pro Bowl center Ryan Jensen.

The 2021 offseason resulted in the Buccaneers becoming the first team in the Super Bowl era to return all 22 starters after winning the Super Bowl. Greenberg played a crucial part in re-signing outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, linebacker Lavonte David, tight end Rob Gronkowski, defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, running back Leonard Fournette, while also extending Super Bowl LV MVP Tom Brady. Offensive lineman Donovan Smith also signed his second contract extension with the team in March.

In addition, Greenberg was able to negotiate a contract extension with nose tackle Vita Vea in Week 18 of the 2021 season.

During the 2020 offseason, Greenberg was vital in negotiating quarterback Tom Brady's two-year contract. He also oversaw the re-signings of former Pro Bowlers Jason Pierre-Paul and Ndamukong Suh, two key veteran presences on the Buccaneers defense. Greenberg was named a 2020 Tampa Bay Business Journal 40 under 40 honoree, in addition to also being listed on The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40: The rising stars shaping the direction of the NFL."

In his role as Director of Football Administration, Greenberg oversaw long-term contract extensions for linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans, each of whom have earned Pro Bowl honors during their time with Tampa Bay. Greenberg also worked on extensions for offensive linemen Ali Marpet and Donovan Smith.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Greenberg worked with the New York Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspian Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and earned a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law on a full academic scholarship in 2010. Greenberg was also named to the America East All-Academic team. In 2023, the 2003 men's soccer team was inducted into the Binghamton Hall of Fame.

In 2017, Greenberg was inducted into the John F. Kennedy (Bellmore, New York) High School Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Ilana, have three sons, Hank, Harry, and Gus. They reside in Tampa.

JOHN SPYTEK ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

John Spytek enters his second season as Assistant General Manager and ninth with the Buccaneers, having spent 21 total seasons in the NFL. Prior to being promoted to Assistant General Manager, Spytek spent two seasons as the Vice President of Player Personnel.

As Assistant General Manager, Spytek works closely with Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht regarding the NFL Draft, key free-agent acquisitions and all other personnel decisions. Spytek oversees the day-to-day operations of the college and pro scouting departments for Tampa Bay. He is responsible for administering free agency preparation and evaluating talent throughout the NFL and other professional football leagues. Since joining the Buccaneers in 2016, Tampa Bay has clinched four playoff appearances, six playoff victories, three NFC South division titles and a Super Bowl championship. The team's six playoff wins since 2016 are tied for the fifth-most in the NFL during that span.

Tampa Bay's 2024 offseason was headlined by the re-signings of a number of successful draft picks and free agents from Spytek's time with the Buccaneers, including quarterback Baker Mayfield and safety Antoine Winfield Jr. Mayfield – a 2023 free agent signing by Tampa Bay – was named to his first Pro Bowl and earned the PFWA Most Improved Player award, leading the Buccaneers to an NFC South division title and a spot in the NFC Divisional Round. Additionally, the team was able to navigate the salary cap to re-sign franchise cornerstones in linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans. Spytek also assisted in the decision to bring back safety Jordan Whitehead in free agency, who was a starting member of the secondary on Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team, in addition to adding cornerback Bryce Hall, offensive linemen Ben Bredeson and Sua Opetia and wide receiver Sterling Shepard.

Over the course of the 2023 offseason, Spytek helped maneuver a challenging salary cap situation with a series of value signings and extensions for key free agents. In addition to re-signing outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, Spytek contributed to the re-signing of cornerback Jamel Dean and linebacker Lavonte David, two of the top free agents in the NFL heading into the 2023 offseason. Beyond that, Spytek was integral in the signings of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield, defensive lineman Greg Gaines, running back Chase Edmonds and kicker Chase McLaughlin. In his first season, McLaughlin was named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus after setting a new single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%), converting 29-of-31 field goal opportunities in 2023. Spytek was a key contributor in the selections of the team's 2023 draft class, which led the NFL in total snaps by a rookie class (5,560). First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks.

During the 2022 offseason, he played a role in the trade for guard Shaq Mason, and the signing of free agent wide receiver Russell Gage Jr., Pro Bowl defensive linemen Akiem Hicks, and Pro Bowl safety Keanu Neal. The Buccaneers also re-signed cornerstone pieces on offense and defense following back-to-back playoff appearances, including cornerback Carlton Davis III, wide receiver Chris Godwin, and center Ryan Jensen.

In 2021, the Buccaneers tied a franchise record with nine total Pro Bowl players selected, including eight either drafted or signed during Spytek's time with Tampa Bay.

Following Super Bowl LV, the Buccaneers brought back all 22 starters, including re-signing free agents Ndamukong Suh, Shaquil Barrett, and Leonard Fournette. Tampa Bay became the first team in the salary cap era to return all 22 starters the season following a Super Bowl victory.

The 2020 offseason saw Spytek assist in acquiring then six-time Super Bowl-winning quarterback Tom Brady and four-time All-Pro tight end Rob Gronkowski. In the 2020 regular season, Brady helped guide the team to an 11-5 record, while setting the franchise single-season touchdown pass record, with 40. Brady also oversaw an offense that established franchise records for points scored (492) and total touchdowns (59). Gronkowski ranked 10th in receiving yards among tight ends (623) and tied for sixth in receiving touchdowns by a tight end, with seven.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, Spytek was part of the front office that drafted Tristan Wirfs and Antoine Winfield Jr., both of whom started all 16 games and earned PFWA All-Rookie Team honors. Wirfs and Winfield Jr. each received their first Pro Bowl selections following the 2021 season, and Wirfs was also named first-team All-Pro in just his second NFL season. Winfield Jr. later garnered first-team All-Pro honors in 2023.

During the 2019 offseason, the Buccaneers signed defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh and outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, both of whom were key contributors for Tampa Bay over the ensuing three seasons. Suh helped lead a Buccaneers defensive line that was a key factor in Tampa Bay's consecutive seasons (2019-2020) as the No.1 ranked run defense.

Barrett has earned two Pro Bowl selections in the past four years (2019, 2021), and earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2019 after leading the NFL in sacks, with 19.5 – establishing a new franchise record. Barrett's 40.5 sacks since 2019 are tied for the fourth-most in the NFC and rank fifth in Buccaneers history. Barrett also registered 3.0 sacks in the 2020 NFC Championship game, helping the Buccaneers advance to Super Bowl LV.

The 2019 NFL Draft saw Tampa Bay select linebacker Devin White with the fifth overall pick. In three seasons, White – named a team captain in 2020 and 2021 – has earned second-team All-Pro and multiple NFC Defensive Player of the Month awards, as well as PFWA All-Rookie selection and multiple NFC Rookie of the Month awards. Following his third season, White earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

Spytek worked with Licht in acquiring Jason Pierre-Paul from the New York Giants in 2018. In three seasons with the Buccaneers, Pierre-Paul averaged 0.73 sacks per game – eighth-most in the NFL during that stretch. Pierre-Paul earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2020 after posting a team-high 9.5 sacks and a career-best four forced fumbles.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Spytek spent three seasons with the Denver Broncos, where he worked as Southwest area scout in 2013, before being elevated to national scout, a position he held for two years (2014-15). The Broncos' 37 regular season and 42 overall wins were the most in the NFL over that three-year span, culminating in a Super Bowl 50 victory on February 7, 2016.

Before joining the Broncos, Spytek spent three seasons (2010-12) as the Cleveland Browns' director of college scouting. While with the Browns, Spytek assisted in drafting six players who earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and five players who were selected to a Pro Bowl.

Spytek began his player personnel career working as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, earning a full-time college scouting assistant position in 2006 and spending three years as a college/pro scout from 2007-09. His first job in the NFL was as an operations intern with the Detroit Lions in 2004.

In his career, Spytek has worked with a number of top-level executives and coaches, including John Elway, Andy Reid, Mike Holmgren, Tom Heckert, John Harbaugh & Gary Kubiak.

John and his wife, Kristen co-founded the National CMV Foundation in 2014 to educate families about congenital CMV, a virus that ultimately claimed the life of their 21-month old daughter, Evelyn, in 2014. The couple are also parents to Jack and Thomas.

A native of Pewaukee, Wisconsin, Spytek played linebacker at the University of Michigan from 1999-2002, earning a bachelor's degree in general studies and a master's in sports management.

MIKE BIEHL DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mike Biehl enters his 11th season with Tampa Bay and third as the team's director of player personnel. In his role, Biehl is responsible for coordinating and compiling evaluations of all draft-eligible players, while overseeing the entire college scouting staff. Prior to 2022, Biehl was the director of college scouting for the Buccaneers.

On the path to an appearance in the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, the Buccaneers relied heavily on their draft class, which provided the most total snaps by a rookie class in the NFL that season (5,560). Seven members of the eight-person class played in at least 13 games for Tampa Bay as the collective group combined for 106 games played and 48 games started. First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

Tampa Bay selected eight players in the 2022 NFL Draft and saw immediate contributions from the entire class, ranking seventh in the NFL with 3,689 snaps by rookies in the 2022 season. Of those 3,689 snaps, the Buccaneers saw their rookies log 1,977 of them on offense, good for the fourth-most in the NFL. Fourth-round tight end Cade Otton was Tampa Bay's most prolific rookie contributor on offense in 2022, leading all rookie tight ends with 42 receptions and ranking third among rookie tight ends with 391 receiving yards. Since entering the league in 2022, Otton ranks second among all tight ends in offensive snaps played (1,774), in addition to ranking third in his tight end class in receptions (89), third in receiving touchdowns (six) and fourth in receiving yards (846). After taking over the lead running back role in 2023, 2022 third-rounder Rachaad White ranks first in receiving yards (839) and tied for first in receiving touchdowns (five) among running backs in his draft class over the past two seasons. White also stands tied for second among running backs in scrimmage yards (2,310) and tied for fifth in scrimmage touchdowns (12) during that span.

In 2021, Tampa Bay selected outside linebacker Joe Tryon-Shoyinka in the first round and center Robert Hainsey in the third round, who each became primary starters in just their second NFL season (2022). The pairing has combined to appear in 94 games over their first three seasons, starting a total of 68.

In 2020, the NFL conducted its first ever virtual draft, with the Buccaneers selecting a total of seven players. Five out of six players saw playing time in at least ten games, led by first and second-round picks Tristan Wirfs and Antoine Winfield Jr. Despite no offseason or preseason games, both rookies started all 16 regular season games and every playoff game they appeared in.

Wirfs and Winfield Jr. turned out to be key contributors en route to the Buccaneers second Super Bowl victory. Wirfs played every offensive snap, only allowing one sack. Winfield Jr. had similar success, starting his rookie campaign by winning NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month and finishing third on the team with 94 tackles, 3.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, and an interception. Both were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. Since 2020, Wirfs and Winfield Jr. have been two of the NFL's most productive players at their respective positions with Wirfs earning three Pro Bowl selections and one AP first-team All-Pro nod in his four seasons and Winfield Jr. earning one Pro Bowl trip and one first-team All-Pro selection.

The 2019 NFL Draft produced a total of eight draft picks, with five players seeing starts in Todd Bowles' defense. Devin White, picked fifth overall, started all 13 games he played, recording 91 tackles, recovering four fumbles, and capping his first season with consecutive NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month honors for November and December. Cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, picked in the second-round, led the team with three interceptions, tying for the most among NFL rookies. Both White and Murphy-Bunting earned spots on the PFWA's All-Rookie team. Third-round pick Jamel Dean finished the season with 17 passes defended, tying for fourth in the NFL.

In his second season, White was named a team captain and led Tampa Bay with 140 tackles – fifth-most in the NFL – while adding 9.0 sacks. White earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice. Both White and Murphy-Bunting were key contributors during Tampa Bay's postseason run, with White tallying 38 tackles, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, while Murphy-Bunting recorded three interceptions in his first three career playoffs games, becoming just the fourth player to do so in the Super Bowl era. White later garnered his first Pro Bowl selection for his efforts during the 2021 season.

With the 12th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected defensive tackle Vita Vea, who helped anchor the Buccaneers' top-ranked run defense during the 2019 and 2020 seasons. The team has finished top five in rush defense in four of Vea's six seasons in Tampa Bay, helping land Vea his first Pro Bowl selection in 2021. Fourth-round pick Jordan Whitehead, chosen 117th overall, started 55-of-59 career games for Tampa Bay in his first four seasons, tallying 292 tackles and five interceptions. After two productive seasons with the New York Jets, Whitehead re-signed with the Buccaneers prior to the 2024 season as a key free agent acquisition.

Ronald Jones II – a second-round pick in the 2018 Draft – recorded 1,000 yards from scrimmage and six rushing touchdowns in nine starts in 2019 and followed that up with an even more impressive 2020. Jones rushed for 978 yards on 192 carries (5.1 avg.) with seven touchdowns. His 5.1 yards per carry established a new franchise record and ranked eighth in the NFL among qualified rushers.

Fellow 2018 second-round pick Carlton Davis III started 75 career games over six seasons for Tampa Bay, including starting all nine of the team's playoff games between 2020–23. Over his six years for the Buccaneers, Davis III ranked fifth in the NFL in passes defended (73), adding 13 takeaways.

The 2017 NFL Draft saw Biehl, working with General Manager Jason Licht, select six players, with three stepping into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers' first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie.

In the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected wide receiver Chris Godwin. Over seven seasons with Tampa Bay, Godwin has totaled 6,690 receiving yards – the second-most in team history – and 34 touchdowns, which rank tied for second in franchise history. Since becoming a full-time starter in 2019, Godwin ranks 10th in the NFL in receiving yards per game (73.9 avg.) among players with at least 50 games played during that span. The 2019 season saw him rank third in the NFL with 1,333 receiving yards and fourth in the NFL in receiving touchdowns with nine, earning Pro Bowl and second-team AP All-Pro honors. During the 2022 offseason, Godwin signed a contract extension after he led the team in receiving yards (1,103) and receptions (98) in 2021. Coming off an ACL injury at the end of the 2021 campaign, Godwin recorded 104 receptions for 1,023 yards during the 2022 season. His 104 receptions in 2022 were the second-most in a single season in franchise history. He earned his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season in 2023, finishing with 83 receptions for 1,024 yards.

Biehl also assisted Licht in the 2015 NFL Draft, where the team held the first overall pick which was used to select quarterback Jameis Winston, who earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and a PFWA All-Rookie Team selection, while setting nearly every rookie passing record in Buccaneers history. The 2015 draft also saw Tampa Bay select tackle Donovan Smith (34th overall), guard Ali Marpet (61st overall) and linebacker Kwon Alexander (124th overall), all of whom earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside Winston. Alexander was selected to the 2017 Pro Bowl. Both Marpet and Smith signed contract extensions, with Marpet named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus in 2020 in addition to being named to the PFWA All-NFC Team, before later earning a Pro Bowl selection in 2021.

Biehl came to the Buccaneers with 16 seasons of NFL experience, including 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2001–13). Biehl worked as the club's assistant director of college scouting for six seasons (2008–13), after being promoted from college scout (2001–07), where he scouted the Midwest region of the country. Over that span, the Chargers had the eighth-most wins in the NFL, won five AFC West division championships and made six playoff appearances.

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Biehl spent three seasons (1998–2000) working in the Buffalo Bills' personnel department, during which time the Bills had the NFL's sixth-best record and qualified for the playoffs twice.

A native of Paxton, Illinois, Biehl attended Illinois State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in sports management.

Mike and his wife, Kim, have two children: son Nathan, and daughter Kendall.

SIDELINES

Rob McCartney enters his 14th season with the Buccaneers and third as director of player personnel. In addition to overseeing the pro scouting department, McCartney advises General Manager Jason Licht throughout the draft process and in free agency. Before his promotion in 2022, McCartney served as the team's director of pro scouting.

As director of pro scouting, McCartney oversaw the Buccaneers pro personnel staff and advance reports, along with the evaluation of opponents, pro leagues, free agents, and trade prospects. Prior to becoming the director of pro scouting – a role that he held since 2015 – McCartney was the Buccaneers pro scouting coordinator, a title he held for one season.

Tampa Bay's 2024 offseason focused primarily on retaining four of the NFL's top free agents on the market – Lavonte David, Mike Evans, Baker Mayfield and Antoine Winfield Jr. – but McCartney played an instrumental role in maximizing the remaining salary cap space to sign a number of outside free agents headlined by the signing of safety Jordan Whitehead, who started on Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team. In addition, the team signed a number of value free agents, including guard Ben Bredeson, cornerback Bryce Hall, guard Sua Opeta and wide receiver Sterling Shepard.

In 2023, McCartney contributed to a series of value signings as Tampa Bay navigated challenging salary cap restraints. He assisted in the team's acquisitions of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield, defensive lineman Greg Gaines, guard Matt Feiler, running back Chase Edmonds and kicker Chase McLaughlin. In his first season with the team, Mayfield earned his first career Pro Bowl selection and was named PFWA Most Improved Player after setting career highs in passing yards (4,044), passing touchdowns (28) and completion percentage (64.3%). Meanwhile, McLaughlin earned first-team All-Pro recognition from Pro Football Focus, converting 29-of-31 field goal opportunities in 2023 to set a new single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%).

Additionally in 2023, the Buccaneers relied heavily on their draft class to reach the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, during which it provided the most total snaps by a rookie class in the NFL that season (5,560). Seven members of the eight-person class played in at least 13 games for Tampa Bay as the collective group combined for 106 games played and 48 games started. First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

In the 2022 offseason, McCartney played a key role in acquiring several free agents, including wide receivers Russell Gage and Julio Jones and defensive lineman Akiem Hicks. McCartney also evaluated guard Shaq Mason, who the Buccaneers acquired via trade from the New England Patriots.

In 2021, McCartney was named to the Tampa Bay Business Journal's 40 under 40 list, celebrating individuals under the age of 40 who have achieved notable success, demonstrated exceptional leadership, and made significant contributions in their respective fields.

During the 2020 offseason, McCartney was involved in bringing in quarterback Tom Brady and tight end Rob Gronkowski. Other veteran players to join the Buccaneers during the 2020 season were running back Leonard Fournette and kicker Ryan Succop. Despite a global pandemic, Tom Brady would lead the team to an 11-5 record and a Super Bowl victory. Brown, Fournette and Gronkowski would each go on to score touchdowns in Super Bowl LV, while Succop set a regular season franchise record for the most points in a single season (136).

During the 2019 offseason, he scouted outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh. Barrett went on to have a Pro Bowl year, setting the franchise sack record with an NFL-best 19.5, while Suh started all 16 games for Tampa Bay, helping the team register the No. 1 rush defense in the NFL. The pair continued their success into the 2020 season, starting all 20 games, including four playoff games. Barrett and Suh helped the Buccaneers finish as the No. 1 rush defense for the second consecutive season.

In 2018, McCartney contributed to the signing of free agent center Ryan Jensen and the acquisition of outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul from the New York Giants. Jensen went on to start 65 games for the Buccaneers and was an integral part of the club's Super Bowl LV Championship team. He earned his first career Pro Bowl nod in 2021. In three seasons with the Buccaneers, Pierre-Paul averaged 0.73 sacks per game – eighth-most in the NFL during that stretch. Pierre-Paul earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2020 after posting a team-high 9.5 sacks and a career-best four forced fumbles.

McCartney spent the 2014 season as a national scout, following two seasons as a pro scout, a title he earned after being elevated from a pro personnel assistant.

While working as a national scout, McCartney was responsible for scouting top college prospects east of the Mississippi River. As a pro scout, McCartney assisted Tampa Bay's pro personnel department, including organizing player workouts.

McCartney came to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the player personnel department from 2006-08.

His father, Bob McCartney, has spent 52 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was recognized by the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2024 with an Award of Excellence for his contributions as a long-time film/video director.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. Rob and his wife Kristi reside in Tampa, along with their three daughters, Madison, Charlotte and Zoe.

JACQUELINE DAVIDSON

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH

Jacqueline Davidson enters her fifth season with the Buccaneers and second as the Vice President of Football Research after being promoted from Senior Director of Football Research.

Davidson is responsible for supporting the front office and coaching staff in roster and strategy decisions through research and development. She also works alongside General Manager Jason Licht and Assistant General Manager Mike Greenberg on player contracts and salary cap decisions.

In 2024, Davidson led the contract negotiations that resulted in the re-signings of Pro Bowl quarterback Baker Mayfield and All-Pro safety Antoine Winfield Jr., retaining players on both sides of the ball that helped lead Tampa Bay to the 2023 NFC Divisional Round. Davidson also administered the re-signing of kicker Chase McLaughlin, who set a single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%) in his first year in Tampa Bay, earning first-team All-Pro recognition from Pro Football Focus. The Buccaneers also brought back two more of the NFL's top 2024 free agents in linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans. Davidson and the Tampa Bay front office didn't stop there, as the team also sealed a deal to return a former starting safety from its Super Bowl LV championship team in Jordan Whitehead reuniting one of the league's top safety duos.

During the 2023 offseason, Davidson contributed to the re-signings of key contributors in cornerback Jamel Dean, outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, and linebacker Lavonte David. Dean, Nelson, and David ranked second, third, and fourth, respectively, in total snaps by Buccaneers defenders during the 2022 season. In addition, Dean and David were rated as the fifth- and sixth-best free agents available, respectively, heading into the 2023 offseason, per Pro Football Focus.

Davidson was instrumental in re-signing a pair of key starters in 2022 in cornerback Carlton Davis III and wide receiver Chris Godwin, in addition to retaining center Ryan Jensen. Prior to the 2022 offseason, Davidson assisted with securing an extension for Buccaneers Pro Bowl nose tackle Vita Vea leading into the team's Week 18 game.

Following Super Bowl LV, Davidson played a vital role in helping the Buccaneers bring back all 22 starters, including a total of six free agent re-signings and two contract extensions. This marked the first time in the salary cap era that a defending Super Bowl champ has returned all 22 starters.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Davidson spent 11 seasons working in football administration with the New York Jets, spending eight-plus years as the Manager, Football Administration from 2007-15 before being elevated to Director, Football Administration (2015-18).

In her role as Director, Football Administration, Davidson served as the Jets' lead negotiator of player contracts and managed the team's salary cap and player budgets. She was also tasked with adhering to the regulations of the NFL's collective-bargaining agreement and predicting future trends relating to the league's salary cap.

Davidson entered the league as a legal intern with the National Football League's Management Council in 2004, while pursuing her law degree. She also worked as a staff attorney for the United States District Court in Alabama and a judicial law clerk for Judge Virginia Emerson Hopkins prior to earning her position with the Jets in 2007.

After graduating from Davidson College in 2002 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, Davidson earned a Juris Doctor from Cornell University School of Law in 2005. Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, she is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

BRUCE ARIANS

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Bruce Arians enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers and third as Senior Advisor to the General Manager. In his role, he advises and offers counsel to General Manager Jason Licht. Prior to this role, Arians was the Buccaneers head coach for three seasons (2019-21), delivering the organization's second Super Bowl title in 2020. He was honored during the 2022 season as the newest member of the Buccaneers Ring of Honor.

Arians concluded a 46-year coaching career, including his last nine leading NFL franchises. With the Buccaneers from 2019-2021, he amassed a 31-18 (.633) regular season record and a 5-1 (.833) postseason record, including a victory in Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season. In 2021, he directed Tampa Bay to its first NFC South division title since 2007 and victory in the Wild Card Round. The Buccaneers' 36 combined regular season and postseason victories over his three seasons were the fourth-most in the NFL.

During Arians' tenure, Tampa Bay led the NFL in points scored (29.8 per game), passing yards (300.0 per game), passing touchdowns (118), completions (1,284), and passing first downs (755), ranked third in total yards (396.2 per game), fourth in first downs (22.9 per game), and seventh in sacks allowed (92).

Arians is a two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, earning the award in 2012 (Indianapolis Colts) and in 2014 (Arizona Cardinals). He is the only coach in NFL history to earn the award multiple times in a three-year span with different teams and is one of only 12 coaches in NFL history to win the award multiple times.

Including his 9-3 record as interim head coach of the Indianapolis Colts in 2012, Arians owns an 89-51-1 regular season record (.635) and ranks eighth in winning percentage among coaches who have coached at least 100 games in the Super Bowl era. Arians is Tampa Bay's all-time leader in regular season and postseason winning percentage, while his .619 regular season winning percentage as head coach of the Arizona Cardinals is the best in that franchise's history. He joins Bill Parcells, Andy Reid and Marty Schottenheimer as the only coaches during the Super Bowl era to hold that distinction for two organizations.

Upon being hired by the Buccaneers, Arians quickly built a staff of qualified assistant coaches, bringing on a collection of coaches with decades of NFL experience. In building his staff, Arians also put together one of the most diverse coaching groups in the NFL. The Buccaneers were the only team in the league to have three coordinator positions, as well as the role of assistant head coach, filled by minority coaches. In addition, Arians' staff made NFL history by becoming the first to have two female coaches in full-time assistant roles.

Throughout his 28-year NFL career, Arians has worked closely with some of the league's top passers, including Tom Brady, Peyton Manning, Ben Roethlisberger, Andrew Luck and Carson Palmer. Since 2009, Arians served as either head coach or offensive coordinator for four different franchises (Tampa Bay, Arizona, Indianapolis, Pittsburgh) and oversaw an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the league at each stop.

Arians' coaching career began as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, in 1975, before being elevated to running backs coach in 1977. He spent 1978-80 with Mississippi State as the school's running backs/wide receivers coach before coaching the running backs at Alabama for two seasons (1981-82) under legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. Arians would later return to Mississippi State (1993-95) and Alabama (1997) to serve as the offensive coordinator for the respective schools. He became one of the youngest head coaches in Division I history when Temple University hired him in 1983 at the age of 30. He spent six seasons coaching the Owls (1983-88).

BUCCANEERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
DECEMBER 29, 1979
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on the one last drive in the final

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA - In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A. territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

SIDELINES

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong run from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17
TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS - For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from mid-field when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

TAMPA - In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies-RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards-the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7
JANUARY 4, 1998
LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer play-off history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the side-line for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

PHILADELPHIA - Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

2001 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9 JANUARY 12, 2002 VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA - Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added

57 yards rushing.

SIDELINES

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10 JANUARY 7, 2006 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA - Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LANDOVER, MD. – In Tampa Bay's most prolific postseason offensive performance to date, the Buccaneers defeated the Washington Football Team, 31-23, while setting franchise postseason records for both single-game net yards (507), and single-game net passing yards (365). Pro Bowl wide receiver Mike Evans racked up 119 yards receiving on six receptions to help the Buccaneers advance to the NFC Divisional Round. Quarterback Tom Brady threw a pair of touchdown passes in the opening half – finding Antonio Brown and Chris Godwin – to give the Buccaneers an 18-7 lead going into the break. Washington quarterback Taylor Heinicke, who was starting just the second game of his NFL career, found both his rhythm and the end zone in the second half, scoring on a 8-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter to bring the score to 18-16 in favor of the Buccaneers. Tampa Bay responded by scoring the next 11 points via a Ryan Succop 38-yard field goal and a three-yard touchdown run from Leonard Fournette to push the lead up to 28-16. Washington came back with a long touchdown drive of its own – finished off by an 11-yard touchdown pass from Heinicke to Steven Sims Jr. – to once again make it a one-possession game with 4:20 remaining in the contest. Succop hit his fourth field goal of the game with 2:49 remaining to give Tampa Bay a 31-23 lead that it wouldn't surrender. Succop's four made field goals in the game marked the most in a single game in Buccaneers' playoff history. Meanwhile, Fournette's 132 scrimmage yards at Washington stand as the third-most by a Tampa Bay player in a playoff game.

TAMPA BAY 30, NEW ORLEANS 20

MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME (3,750)

NEW ORLEANS - The Tampa Bay Buccaneers came out on top in their first ever postseason meeting with the division-rival New Orleans Saints, prevailing by a 30-20 score. Turnovers proved to be the difference as the Buccaneers defense picked off Saints quarterback Drew Brees three times and recovered a Jared Cook fumble, while Tampa Bay's offense put forth a turnover-free performance, giving the Buccaneers a 4-0 advantage in the turnover battle. Saints wide receiver and return specialist Deonte Harris returned the game's first punt 54 yards to set up kicker Will Lutz for his first of two first-quarter field goals that gave New Orleans an early 6-0 lead. Tampa Bay responded with 10-straight points on a Ryan Succop field goal followed by a three-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans. The Saints' lone possession between the Buccaneers' back-to-back scores was halted by an interception from cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, who returned it 36 yards to the Saints' 3-yard line, setting Tampa Bay up with great field position leading into Evans' touchdown catch. Trailing for the first time, New Orleans pulled out a trick play with a direct snap to running back Alvin Kamara, who handed it off to Emmanuel Sanders on a reverse. Sanders then pitched it back to quarterback Jameis Winston, who began the play lined up on the outside prior to throwing a 56-yard touchdown strike to TreQuan Smith, re-gaining the lead for New Orleans. A 37-yard field goal from Succop knotted the score at 13 going into halftime. Smith hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Drew Brees to begin the second half, but Tampa would score the game's final 17 points, aided by three second-half takeaways, to leave New Orleans with a win. Buccaneers running back Leonard Fournette accumulated 107 scrimmage yards in the contest, including a 6-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. Meanwhile, Brady finished with 199 passing yards and three total touchdowns, with zero interceptions.

2020 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, GREEN BAY 26 JANUARY 24, 2021 LAMBEAU FIELD (7,772)

TAMPA – On the shoulders of a combined five-sack day by edge rushers Shaquil Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers won the franchise's second NFC Championship, defeating the Green Bay Packers, 31-26. Tampa Bay executed a nine-play, 66-yard drive to begin the game – capped off by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans – scoring the only points in the first quarter. The Packers got to work quickly to open the second quarter as Aaron Rodgers found Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 50-yard touchdown strike to briefly tie the game before Tampa Bay responded with a 20-yard touchdown run from Leonard Fournette. Then with just 28 second remaining in the opening half, the Packers – trailing 14-10 – had the ball with a chance to climb within a point or potentially take the lead, however a timely, game-changing interception from Sean Murphy-Bunting gave the Buccaneers the ball back with enough time for Brady to deliver a 39-yard touchdown pass to Scotty Miller with just one second remaining, giving Tampa Bay a 21-10 edge at halftime. The momentum carried over into the second half for Tampa Bay as Jordan Whitehead got things going with a forced fumble that was scooped up by Devin White, leading to another Buccaneers touchdown – an eight-yard reception by Cameron Brate – extending the lead to 28-10 with 13:54 remaining in the third quarter. From that point on, Green Bay outscored Tampa Bay 17-3, but the Buccaneers were able to overcome interceptions on three consecutive drives and hold on to win by a 31-26 score. Chris Godwin's fifth reception of the game sealed the win for Tampa Bay and lifted the Buccaneers to the organization's second Super Bowl appearance. Godwin's 110 receiving yards in the game marked the second-most in a playoff game in franchise history. Barrett's 3.0 sacks tied for the most in a postseason game in team history, while Pierre-Paul's two sacks tied for the third-most in a single playoff game. As a team, the Buccaneers 5.0 sacks at Green Bay tied for the most in team postseason history.

SUPER BOWL LV

TAMPA BAY 31, KANSAS CITY 9
FEBRUARY 7, 2021
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (24,835)

TAMPA – In a dominating performance at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, to claim the Lombardi Trophy, becoming the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. The Tampa Bay defense became just the fifth in Super Bowl history not to allow a touchdown. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Tom Brady found Rob Gronkowski for an 8-yard touchdown pass to give Tampa Bay a lead which it would never surrender. The Buccaneers were stopped on the goal line on their next possession, but followed it up with three consecutive touchdown drives. Gronkowski hauled in a 17-yard pass from Brady to score his second touchdown of the game, putting his name next to Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history with two-or-more touchdown receptions in multiple Super Bowls. With 1:01 remaining in the opening half, the Buccaneers took advantage of a penalty-aided drive that resulted in a 1-yard touchdown reception for Antonio Brown with just six seconds before halftime, giving Tampa Bay a 21-6 advantage at the break. The Chiefs were able to get a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but that would mark the final points of the ballgame for Kansas City. The Buccaneers immediately responded with a Leonard Fournette 27-yard touchdown run followed by a 52-yard Ryan Succop field goal to push the lead to 31-9. The second half continued to be dominated by the Buccaneers defense, which consistently put pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes. Tampa Bay's defense recorded a pair of second-half interceptions – one from Devin White and one from Antoine Winfield Jr. Winfield became just the seventh rookie in NFL history with an interception in the Super Bowl. Collectively, the Buccaneers defense racked up nine quarterback hits in the game, which were tied for the fourth-most in a Super Bowl since QB hits became regularly tracked in 2006. Shaquil Barrett had four quarterback hits alone, tying for the second-most by an individual player in that span. Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors for the fifth time in his career, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns to earn a 125.8 passer rating. He moved to 7-3 in his career in Super Bowls – the most wins ever by any player in league history. The Super Bowl victory was the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, the longest winning streak in team history.

2021 NFC WILD CARD GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, PHILADELPHIA 15

JANUARY 16, 2022

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,077)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers kicked off their 2021-22 NFL Playoffs with a dominating performance on both sides of the ball vs. the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round, racing out to a 31-0 lead through three quarters. In the absence of the team's two primary running backs Leonard Fournette and Ronald Jones II, it was fellow running backs Giovani Bernard and Ke'Shawn Vaughn finding the endzone in the opening quarter to give Tampa Bay a 14-0 advantage. Meanwhile, the Buccaneers defense delivered a first-half shutout to take a 17-0 lead into halftime after safety Mike Edwards intercepted a pass in the endzone with 43 seconds remaining to preserve the lead heading into the break. In the second half, Tampa Bay picked up right where it left off, capitalizing on a pair of third quarter turnovers and turning them into 14 points on the other end. The first was a muffed punt by the Eagles that led to a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Rob Gronkowski. On the very next Eagles' possession, quarterback Jalen Hurts was picked off by Buccaneers outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, which led to another Tom Brady touchdown — a 36-yard pass to Mike Evans. Evans led the team with a single-game franchise playoff record nine receptions for 117 yards and a touchdown. Philadelphia scored the game's final 15 points in the fourth quarter, but came up short as Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Divisional Round. It marked the fifth consecutive playoff win for Tampa Bay, the team's longest in franchise history. Tampa Bay became one of just three teams in NFL history to have five consecutive playoff games scoring 30-or-more points joining the New Orleans Saints (1/16/10-1/14/12) and Kansas City Chiefs (1/12/19-2/2/20). The 16-point winning margin marked the fifth-largest in team history, while Tom Brady's 115.2 passer rating in the game ranked as the second-best mark in a postseason game in franchise history.

2021 NFC DIVISIONAL ROUND

LOS ANGELES 30, TAMPA BAY 27

JANUARY 23, 2022

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,597)

TAMPA - The Buccaneers mounted a thrilling 24-point comeback effort to knot the score at 27 with just 42 seconds remaining in regulation, but ultimately Tampa Bay fell 30-27 to the Los Angeles Rams in the 2021 NFC Divisional Round. The Rams leaned on their stars to open up a 20-3 lead at halftime and a 27-3 lead late in the third quarter as quarterback Matthew Stafford threw a pair of first-half touchdown passes, including a 70-yard completion to wide receiver Cooper Kupp, before later running it in for a third touchdown in the third quarter. Kupp led all players with 102 first-half receiving yards and 183 total for the game. Late in the third quarter, Tampa Bay began to find itself, scoring on a 31-yard field goal from Ryan Succop and a 1-yard touchdown run by Leonard Fournette to cut the deficit to 27-13 heading into the final frame. Three second half fumble recoveries allowed the Buccaneers to continue to climb back into the game and the four total fumble recoveries by Tampa Bay set a new single-game franchise playoff record. With 3:20 remaining in the game, wide receiver Mike Evans beat Rams All-Pro cornerback Jalen Ramsey down the sideline and hauled in a 55-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Tom Brady to bring the Buccaneers back into a one-possession ballgame. On the second Rams play following the Evans touchdown, defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh forced the ball loose from Los Angeles running back Cam Akers, and the fumble was scooped up by linebacker Lavonte David to give Tampa Bay a chance to tie with 2:25 remaining in the game. The Buccaneers took full advantage, finishing off a seven-play, 30-yard drive with a 9-yard Fournette touchdown run with 42 seconds left on the clock. However, the Stafford-Kupp duo struck again, connecting for two completions totaling 64 yards to put Los Angeles in field goal range. Rams kicker Matt Gay connected on a game-winning 30-yard field goal which ended the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2021-22 season. Mike Evans' 119 receiving yards in the game tied his own franchise single-game playoff record.

2022 NFC WILD CARD GAME

DALLAS 31, TAMPA BAY 14

JANUARY 16, 2023

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (69,145)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2022 season came to an end after falling to the Dallas Cowboys 31-14 in the Super Wild Card Round, but not before marking the second instance in franchise history in which the team made the playoffs in three consecutive seasons, joining 1999-2002 when Tampa Bay earned four straight playoff berths. The Buccaneers fell into a 24-0 deficit that they were unable to overcome despite putting forth the second-most total yards of offense (386) and second-most net passing yards (334) in franchise playoff history. In his NFL record 48th career playoff game, quarterback Tom Brady threw for 351 yards and two touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2022 NFL season, Brady finished his career as the NFL's all-time leader in playoff wins (35), playoff passing yards (13,400) and playoff touchdown passes (88). He also finished his career as Tampa Bay's all-time leader in playoff wins by a quarterback (five), playoff passing yards (2,012) and playoff passing touchdowns (15). Three different Tampa Bay receivers finished with 70-or-more yards in the game: Chris Godwin (10-85), Julio Jones (7-74, TD) and Mike Evans (6-74). Godwin finished the 2022 season with 114 receptions including playoffs, surpassing Keyshawn Johnson (109 in 2001) for the most in a single season in team history. Franchise cornerstone Lavonte David led the defense with a career playoff-high 14 tackles. Since StatsPass data is available (1994), David's 14 tackles were tied for the second-most by a Buccaneers player in a playoff game in franchise history. In a comeback attempt, Tampa Bay got inside Dallas' 35-yard line on each of their final four drives of the game, scoring a pair of touchdowns from Julio Jones and Cameron Brate.

2023 NFC WILD CARD ROUND

TAMPA BAY 32, PHILADELPHIA 9

JANUARY 15, 2024

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (63,397)

TAMPA – After winning six of their final seven games to finish the regular season and clinch both a playoff berth and Tampa Bay's third consecutive NFC South division title, the Buccaneers used that momentum to put forth a dominant performance on both sides of the ball in a 32-9 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2023 NFC Wild Card game. It marked the first career playoff win for Head Coach Todd Bowles. In his first playoff game as a member of the Buccaneers, quarterback Baker Mayfield threw for 337 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions, earning a playoff career-best 119.8 passer rating and becoming the first player in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards with three-or-more passing touchdowns in a postseason contest. His three touchdowns passes tied for the most in Tampa Bay's team playoff history. All three of Mayfield's touchdown passes came on passes of 20+ yards. Rookie Trey Palmer and veteran David Moore hauled in 56-yard and 44-yard touchdown receptions, respectively, establishing the longest and third-longest postseason touchdown catches in team history. The touchdowns marked the first for both Palmer and Moore in their playoff careers. Tight end Cade Otton also set a new record for the most receptions by a tight end in a playoff game, finishing with a career-best eight catches for 89 yards. The defense held strong all game long, shutting out the Eagles in three of the four quarters. Tampa Bay's +23 margin of victory on the night marked the clubs' third-largest point differential in a postseason game. Tampa Bay held Philadelphia to 0-for-9 on third down conversion attempts, marking the fourth time in NFL postseason history that a team has held an opponent to a third-down conversion percentage of zero. Tampa Bay outgained Philadelphia 426-276 (+150), posting the largest yardage differential in a playoff game in club history. The Eagles collected a season-low 13 first downs and were held to a season-low 42 rushing yards. It marked the second-fewest rushing yards Tampa Bay has allowed in a playoff game in franchise history, trailing only Super Bowl XXVII when they limited the Oakland Raiders to 19 rushing yards. Additionally, Tampa Bay forced a safety, the first postseason safety in club history.

2023 NFC DIVISIONAL ROUND

DETROIT 31, TAMPA BAY 23
JANUARY 21, 2024
FORD FIELD (66,201)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers went toe-to-toe with the Detroit Lions in the 2023 NFC Divisional Round. The two teams exchanged scores throughout the first three quarters, leading to a 17-17 score heading into the fourth quarter. However, Detroit struck twice with a pair of touchdowns to open the final frame and it proved to much to overcome as the Buccaneers eventually fell by a 31-23 score. As an offense, Tampa Bay recorded 408 net yards, the third-most in franchise history, in addition to finishing with the second-highest yards per play average (6.8) and highest rush average (5.9) for a single postseason game in team history. Mike Evans established a new single-game franchise playoff record with 147 receiving yards on eight receptions, which included a 16-yard touchdown catch in the fourth to cut the deficit to one score. For the second time in as many playoff games, Mayfield threw for 300+ yards and three touchdowns, and maintained a 106.5 career postseason passer rating with Tampa Bay for his career through the 2023 season, which then stood as the highest in franchise history. Lavonte David put forth a standout performance defensively, finishing with 13 tackles (two for loss), one quarterback hit and 1.0 sack. With his performance, David improved his total to 71 career postseason tackles – the second-most in club postseason history. His 2.0 career postseason sacks are tied for seventh-most in club postseason history, while his six career postseason tackles for loss are tied for second-most in franchise history. Despite the loss, 2023 marked the fourth consecutive playoff trip for Tampa Bay, tying for the longest-such streak in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL XXXVII RING

2023 REVIEW

HISTORY

In the long-established tradition of creating custom awards for the world of sports, Tiffany & Co. designed the Super Bowl championship rings presented to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, winners of Super Bowl XXXVII.

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a sea-going pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL LV RING

The Buccaneers' Super Bowl LV rings tell the story of the team's unforgettable 2020 season by incorporating the most relevant accomplishments into the design details. Containing 15 carats of white diamonds and 14 karat yellow and white gold, the top of the ring features 319 diamonds. On the top are two Lombardi Trophies – representing the franchise's two Super Bowl Championships – and the team's signature flag logo, carved from a red stone. The 319 diamonds represent the 31-9 final score in Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV victory.

The ring's signature feature is the innovative twist-off top, the first for any Super Bowl ring. On the bottom of the removal top, laser-etched in gold, is the word "HISTORIC" alongside a description of the team's accomplishment as the first to win the Super Bowl on its home field.

When removed, the top reveals the handcrafted replica of Raymond James Stadium. On the gold field is a single diamond, placed by the tunnel where Buccaneers players entered during Super Bowl LV. Around the top of the stadium on each of the four sides are displays of the four game scores from Tampa Bay's postseason run – victories against the Washington Football Team, New Orleans Saints, Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs.

SIDELINES

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice – and the team's first-ever draft selection – in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneers player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979–80, 1982–83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible, occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority and taking on responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976–80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

MCKAY

JIMMIE GILES

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was inducted on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to rank highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.

Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon and becoming the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defended, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defended, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2014.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to turn the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defended, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

.....

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was - and continues to be - a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School; a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defended, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In addition to his selection to the Ring of Honor, Brooks was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014, the third Buccaneers player to be enshrined in Canton.

MIKE ALSTOTT

Mike Alstott was selected as one of two inductees into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former quarterback Doug Williams.

Alstott came to Tampa Bay as a second-round selection (35th overall) out of Purdue in the 1996 NFL Draft and quickly rose to acclaim as one of the league's most powerful, punishing rushers, running with a hard-nosed style that earned him the nickname 'A-Train.'

A six-time Pro Bowl selection – a franchise record for an offensive player – and four-time Associated Press All-Pro honoree, Alstott is the Buccaneers' all-time leader in touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (58). He ranks second in franchise annals with 5,088 rushing yards, second in yards from scrimmage (7,372), fourth in receptions (305), and seventh in games played (158).

Alstott's bruising running style and not-to-be-denied goal-line carries made him a legend in the Bay Area and throughout the league.

In eight of his 11 seasons, Alstott led or tied the team lead in rushing touchdowns, recording a career-best 10 in 2001 and twice rushing for three touchdowns in a single game (vs. Minnesota, 10/28/2001; at Cincinnati, 12/27/1998). He recorded seven 100-yard rushing games during his career.

In addition to the accolades he earned during the regular season, Alstott also holds a decorated place in Buccaneers postseason lore. He was a member of six playoff teams and played in 10 postseason contests, both tied for second-most in franchise history behind only Derrick Brooks, and the most ever by an offensive player.

Alstott was part of five Buccaneer playoff victories, tied for a franchise best, while his 341 rushing yards are also the most in club history. Alstott's seven postseason touchdowns, all rushing, are five more than any other player in team history. Four of those scores came en route to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in San Diego following the 2002 season. Alstott also ranks third in postseason receptions (21) and fourth in postseason receiving yards (161).

During his career, Alstott was an active community supporter and his dedication to civic duty only increased since his retirement. During the 2007 offseason, Alstott and his wife Nicole formed the Mike Alstott Family Foundation, with the goal of assisting and uplifting the minds, hearts and spirits of families and children on their way to realizing their full potential through various events, assistance programs and celebrations.

Since the formation of his foundation, Alstott and his family have been involved in organizing and helping carry out numerous outreach events, including frequent programs with All-Children's Hospital; partnering with Big Brothers and Big Sisters; raising funds for the Angelus House, a home for children with disabilities; and special events catered to serving the area's foster children

Alstott currently serves as the head football coach at Northside Christian School in St. Petersburg, Florida.

DOUG WILLIAMS

Doug Williams was selected as one of two inductees into the Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former fullback Mike Alstott.

Williams joined the Buccaneers as the team's first-round draft choice (17th overall) in the 1978 NFL Draft out of Grambling State and was immediately saddled with the hopes of a struggling franchise searching for a long-term solution at the quarterback position.

Taking over the reins of a team that had won two games combined in its first two NFL seasons, Williams' rookie year led to 10 starts and four wins. He would then start every game over the next four seasons and, in his sophomore season, he engineered one of the most unforeseen success stories of the era when he led the Buccaneers to the 1979 NFC Central Division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Williams also took the Buccaneers to a division title in 1981 and led his team to a record above .500 in three of his final four seasons (1979, 1981-82) as Tampa Bay's quarterback. In comparison, from 1976-96, without Williams under center, the franchise did not register another winning season.

Leading Tampa Bay to its first three playoff appearances - including all the way to the NFC Championship Game in 1979 - Williams made an indelible mark on the Buccaneers franchise.

In that four-year stretch from 1979-82, Williams started all of the team's 57 regular season games and three playoff contests. Among his peers during that span, Williams ranked seventh in passing yards (11,369), 10th in touchdown passes (66), and seventh in lowest interception rate (3.8 percent). He also topped all quarterbacks during that period with 856 rushing yards and tied for the most rushing touchdowns with 12.

Williams later played in the USFL (1984-85) before joining the Washington Redskins in 1987, where he won Super Bowl XXII Most Valuable Player honors after leading them to a victory over Denver. The Buccaneers would not reach the playoffs again for a decade and a half, until after the team had been purchased by Malcolm Glazer.

Following his playing career, Williams entered the coaching profession and went on to serve two stints as head coach of his college alma mater (1998-2003, 2011-13), winning four conference championships.

Williams has also served as a personnel executive in NFL front offices, first with the Buccaneers from 2004-10 and currently with the Redskins after being hired in 2014.

Williams is also a member of the Washington Redskins Ring of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. As a collegiate player at Grambling, Williams posted a 36-7 record as the starting quarterback and finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

JOHN LYNCH

As one of the most feared safeties of his generation and one of the most impactful figures in Buccaneers history, it was only a matter of time before John Lynch was enshrined in the team's Ring of Honor. Indeed, the elite defender was granted the honor in 2016, and was formally inducted in a halftime ceremony on November 3, 2016 as Tampa Bay faces the Atlanta Falcons on Thursday Night Football.

Lynch came to the Buccaneers as third-round selection (82nd overall) in the 1993 NFL Draft and, upon arriving in Tampa Bay, he joined a team in the midst of some mighty struggles. Despite four consecutive losing seasons to start his career, Lynch, along with teammates and fellow Ring of Honor members Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, helped form the foundation that would turn the franchise around.

Lynch dedicated himself to his craft, and his hard work paid off. The defensive back played 15 seasons in the NFL, starting 191 of 224 games for Tampa Bay (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). He finished his career with 1,277 tackles, 100 passes defended, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, 13.0 sacks and eight fumble recoveries. He also started all 1 postseason contests in which he appeared, tallying 71 tackles, 12 passes defended and two interceptions.

A captain on the Buccaneers' Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch's name is still prominent in the team's record book. He ranks fifth in games played (164), sixth in games started (132), fifth in tackles (973) and sixth in interceptions (23). He was selected to five Pro Bowls as a Buccaneer and four as a Bronco, and his nine total appearances in the all-star game are tied for second-most in league history amongst career safeties.

Renowned for his hard-hitting style and fearless demeanor, Lynch set the standard for the safety play in Tampa Bay.

Beyond simply his raw numbers, Lynch was consistently recognized as one of the most cerebral players on the field at any given time. Monte Kiffin nicknamed Lynch "The Closer," after noting the defensive back's penchant for late-game heroics – including an interception that sparked a comeback in the 1999 NFC Divisional Playoff Game against Washington and the pick that sealed Tampa Bay's 38-35 win over St. Louis in a 2000 Monday Night Football contest.

In fact, of his 26 career interceptions, 14 were secured in the fourth quarter and 11 of the 14 came when his team was either up or down by seven points or less. Lynch's talent for securing takeaways at such crucial moments ensured that 21 of his 26 picks helped his team win games.

Lynch made an impact off the field as well. He and his wife Linda formed the John Lynch Foundation in 2000, with a mission to develop quality young leaders through its community initiatives, including the Star of the Month, Lynch Family Legacy Scholarships, Salute the Stars and Lynch's Holiday Party. During his career, Lynch received numerous accolades for his work outside the game, being named a three-time Buccaneers Man of the Year, earning the Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2006 and the Bart Starr award in 2005, being selected by teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2001 and twice finishing as a finalist for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, along with numerous other achievements.

Lynch currently serves as the general manager of the San Francisco 49ers, helping guide the team to an NFC Championship in 2019 and 2023. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2021.

MALCOLM GLAZER

Malcolm Glazer, who passed away on May 28, 2014, at the age of 85, purchased the team in 1995 for a then-record $192 million and immediately began one of the most impressive organizational transformations in professional sports. Two years after Glazer's purchase, the Buccaneers broke a 16-year postseason drought in 1997 and would go on to make the playoffs three of the next four seasons.

Determined to turn his team into a Super Bowl champion, Glazer made a bold move that changed the course of the franchise prior to the 2002 season. In a transaction that sent shockwaves throughout the NFL, he hired Jon Gruden away from the Oakland Raiders in exchange for two first-round draft picks, two second-round draft picks and $8 million in cash. Less than 12 months later, in January 2003, he delivered the fans of Tampa Bay their first major professional world championship with a resounding victory over the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

With his first Super Bowl in hand, Glazer set his sights on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,200 square-foot state-of-the-art training center. The new facility, considered the largest free-standing training structure of its kind in professional sports at the time, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006, following training camp.

Known among his league peers for years as a pioneering thinker, Glazer infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL and that still rings true today. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization provided the foundation for continued success, on and off the field.

Glazer also left an equally deep and lasting impact as an advocate for the Tampa Bay community. In 1999, he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has donated millions and reached out to countless thousands in need. He also was a driving force in the negotiations that secured Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa. In 2010, Glazer added to his community-driven legacy with the opening of the Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazer Family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

TONY DUNGY

Dungy, a 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinee, amassed a 54-42 regular season record as head coach of the Buccaneers, posting a franchise-best .563 winning percentage and four playoff appearances.

In 1996, the Glazer Family provided Dungy his first head coaching opportunity on any level after spending the previous 15 seasons as an NFL assistant. In his first season leading the team, Dungy's even-tempered approach and strong leadership guided the team to a 6-10 season which included five wins in the team's last seven games. It would prove to be the only losing campaign in his six seasons as head coach.

By the end of his second season, the transformation was clearly underway as Dungy led Tampa Bay to its first winning record since 1982, earning a playoff berth and delivering Tampa Bay's first playoff victory in 18 years. Prior to the 1997 turnaround, the Buccaneers had lost double-digit games in 13 of the previous 14 seasons. In contrast, Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season record below .500. The four playoff appearances in Dungy's six seasons (1996-2001) tied for the third-most in the NFL during that span.

Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of the only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season below .500.

When Dungy brought his defensive expertise to Tampa Bay, he inherited the league's 27th-ranked defense. In his first season, the Buccaneers improved to No. 11 overall. In each of the next five seasons, that unit ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense and points allowed.

Collectively, over Dungy's six-year tenure, the Buccaneers led the NFL on a per game basis in points allowed (17.0), total net yards allowed (286.7) and passing yards allowed (184.1), while allowing the fewest yards per passing attempt (6.14). Dungy's legacy extends beyond statistics and records. Two of his stalwart defensive players, Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, became fellow Hall of Fame inductees, while perennial Pro Bowlers John Lynch (2018 finalist), Ronde Barber (2018 semifinalist) and Simeon Rice (2018 semifinalist) remain on the ballot.

Among Dungy's assistant coaches during his Tampa Bay tenure were future NFL head coaches Jim Caldwell, Herman Edwards, Rod Marinelli, Lovie Smith and Mike Tomlin. On February 4, 2007, while head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, Dungy faced off against Smith's Chicago Bears as the two became the first African-American coaches to reach the Super Bowl. Dungy emerged victorious. Two years later, Tomlin followed in his footsteps when he led the Steelers to a Super Bowl XLIII victory.

Beyond the football field, Dungy's impact can be felt by the work he does through the Dungy Family Foundation. Based in Tampa, the charity assists organizations in all the NFL cities where Dungy played or coached – Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, Tampa and Indianapolis – by providing opportunities to those in need through educational, emotional and/or financial support. He also serves as the NFL spokesman for All Pro Dad and is active in Big Brothers Big Sisters and Prison Crusade Ministry, among other philanthropic endeavors.

Since retiring from coaching, Dungy has served as a studio analyst for NBC's Football Night in America and Sunday Night Football since 2009. He has authored numerous books that have earned the distinction of New York Times Best Sellers.

Dungy and his wife, Lauren, are the parents of 10 children and still reside in Tampa.

RONDE BARBER

Barber entered the National Football League as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' third-round selection (66th overall) in the 1997 NFL Draft, and, over the course of his career, developed into one of the most decorated players in franchise history. He played in 241 games with 232 starts for Tampa Bay – both club records – while also recording a streak of 215 consecutive starts, tied for sixth-longest in NFL history. His 200 consecutive starts at cornerback is the most for that position in league history, and his 240 consecutive games played ranks second among defensive players since 1970.

During his career, Barber racked up 1,428 tackles – second in franchise history, behind only linebacker Derrick Brooks – 28.0 sacks, 47 interceptions, eight interception return touchdowns, 243 passes defended, 15 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, and six additional touchdowns on fumble returns and blocked/deflected punts. In 2001, Barber led the NFL in interceptions, picking off 10 passes, a Buccaneers single-season record.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions.

Barber also played in 10 playoff games with nine starts, recording 50 tackles, one sack, two interceptions, one interception return touchdown, 11 passes defended and one fumble recovery. He made one of the most memorable plays in Buccaneers history with his 92-yard interception returned for a touchdown against the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2002 NFC Championship Game, sending the Buccaneers to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance and an eventual victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions. His 28.0 sacks are second-most all-time among defensive backs, and the most all-time by a cornerback. He tops the Buccaneers' record book with his nine interceptions returned for touchdowns (including postseason), and his 14 total regular-season return touchdowns put him fourth in NFL history.

Barber's on-the-field numbers earned him a myriad of accolades throughout the years, including five Pro Bowl selections, five AP All-Pro team appointments, and nine Player of the Week awards. Barber was also named to the NFL's 2000s All-Decade Team.

Known for his leadership as much as his play, Barber was selected as a team captain for nine consecutive seasons (2004-12), named Buccaneers Man of the Year in 2006 and voted the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2011. Barber reached the pinnacle after being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2023.

MONTE KIFFIN

Kiffin ranks as the longest-tenured coach in Buccaneers franchise history, having spent 13 seasons with the organization from 1996–2008 under head coaches and fellow Ring of Honor members Tony Dungy (1996–2001) and Jon Gruden (2002–08).

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer said: "Monte Kiffin's contributions to building and sustaining one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history were crucial to our franchise's most successful era. Monte worked closely with Tony Dungy and Jon Gruden using his signature defense that became the team's identity and was a key part of winning the Super Bowl. He was an outstanding coach, teacher and leader who consistently got the best out of his players and we eagerly anticipate welcoming him into our Ring of Honor this upcoming season."

Kiffin joined Dungy's coaching staff as defensive coordinator in 1996 and immediately began the process of overhauling the Buccaneers' defense. Kiffin's unit improved from 27th overall the year prior to his arrival to 11th following that first season.

During Kiffin's 13 seasons leading Tampa Bay's defense, the unit ranked in the top 10 in yards allowed 11 times and in points allowed 12 times.

.....

Working alongside Dungy, he helped create and implement the 'Tampa 2' defensive scheme that eventually propelled the Buccaneers to their victory in Super Bowl XXXVII. During Kiffin's 13 seasons leading Tampa Bay's defense, the unit ranked in the top 10 in yards allowed 11 times and in points allowed 12 times. During that same 13-year span, the defense led the league in points allowed per game (17.5), ranked second in takeaways (293) and yards allowed per game (286.8), third in interceptions (249) and 10th in total sacks (503).

Kiffin's units are among the most accomplished in team history. In 1999, the Buccaneers' defense, led by eventual AP Defensive Player of the Year Warren Sapp, held opponents to a franchise record low of only 228 first downs on the way to an appearance in the NFC Championship Game. In 2000, Tampa Bay's 55 sacks established another team record.

In 2002, Kiffin was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by both Football Digest and the Pro Football Writers Association after his defensive unit became the first since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in points allowed (196), yards allowed per game (252.8) and interceptions (31). The 196 points allowed remains the fewest in a single season in team history and the fifth-fewest allowed in a 16-game season in NFL history.

Under Kiffin's leadership, eight different Buccaneers defensive players made a combined 36 Pro Bowl appearances, while six also earned All-Pro team recognition. In addition to Sapp, Derrick Brooks also earned AP Defensive Player of the Year, following the 2002 season.

BRUCE ARIANS

In March of 2022, Arians concluded a 46-year coaching career, including his last nine leading NFL franchises. With the Buccaneers from 2019–2021, Arians amassed a 31–18 (.633) regular season record and a 5–1 (.833) postseason record, including a victory in Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season. In 2021, he directed Tampa Bay to its first NFC South division title since 2007 and victory in the Wild Card Round. The Buccaneers' 36 combined regular season and postseason victories over the last three seasons are the fourth-most in the NFL.

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer said: "When Bruce arrived in Tampa Bay three years ago, he spoke about establishing a winning culture and adding another Super Bowl championship for our community. He delivered on both of those promises, and our family is deeply appreciative for all that he has accomplished during his time as our head coach. As impressive as his coaching accomplishments have been, his legacy will live on through the doors of opportunity that he has opened for minority coaches and women in football. We support Bruce's decision to transition from the sidelines and look forward to continuing to lean on his vast football knowledge and experience well into the future. On behalf of all Buccaneers fans, I would like to thank Bruce for all that he has done for this franchise and our community."

Arians is Tampa Bay's all time leader in regular season and postseason win percentage.

Arians is a two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, winning the award following the 2012 season with the Indianapolis Colts and the 2014 season with the Arizona Cardinals. Including his 9–3 record as interim head coach of Indianapolis in 2012, Arians' .635 winning percentage (89–51–1) ranks eighth among coaches who have coached at least 100 games in the Super Bowl era.

Arians is Tampa Bay's all-time leader in regular season and postseason winning percentage, while his .619 regular season winning percentage as head coach of the Arizona Cardinals is the best in that franchise's history. He joins Bill Parcells, Andy Reid and Marty Schottenheimer as the only coaches during the Super Bowl era to hold that distinction for two organizations.

Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht said: "I consider Bruce a dear friend and loved working side-by-side with him in a head coach-general manager capacity," Licht said. "I am really proud of what we have been able to accomplish. Bruce established a culture here that set the foundation for a Super Bowl championship. In my opinion, he is a Hall of Fame coach, so it is difficult for our football team to lose that type of leader. However, I am excited to have him continuing his contributions to our franchise in his new capacity."

During Arians' tenure, Tampa Bay led the NFL in points scored (29.8 per game), passing yards (300.0 per game), passing touchdowns (118), completions (1,284), and passing first downs (755), ranked third in total yards (396.2 per game), fourth in first downs (22.9 per game), and seventh in sacks allowed (92).

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the NFL.

The stadium, which opened to rave reviews for the 1998 season, just underwent a multi-phase renovation. The first stage of this project was completed in 2014 and encompassed a complete redesign of the main level concession locations. The second phase was completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and was highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area in excess of 30,000 square feet - at the time, the third-largest in the NFL. Also included was a new, comprehensive sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites. The third phase of renovations, which was completed in time for the team's 2017 season, included a completely redesigned West Stadium Club, a new, 10,000 square-foot team retail store, expansion of the highly successful Hall of Fame Club, and an expansive new home team locker room. The most recent phase of renovations included a complete renovation of the East Stadium Club along with the opening of a new premium sports bar and restaurant named Bar 76 in the East Club atrium entrance.

Some of the stadium's most recognizable features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s vessel and arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew which is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy one of the most unique views in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

- Ship Length 103'
- Ship Weight 43 tons
- Ship Height 78'
- Bow Detail 9'x7'
- Ship Width 32'
- Swords 16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

The Buccaneers make their home at AdventHealth Training Center, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136,320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to the meticulously kept practice fields.

AHTC, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM

The locker room at AdventHealth Training Center covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

INDOOR FACILITY

In addition to the main facility, the new state-of-the-art indoor practice facility was completed prior to the 2017 season. The 100,000-square-foot facility features a full-sized FieldTurf playing surface, has an indoor clearance of 96 feet and seating for up to 3,500 guests.

The space is used frequently for walkthroughs, practices, select training camp viewing sessions and several other major events hosted at AdventHealth Training Center over the course of the year. The facility provides players and coaching staff members with the luxury of escaping Florida's extremely hot and humid conditions and avoid missed practices due to inclement weather.

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at AHTC is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

TEAM AUDITORIUM AND POSITION ROOMS

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where the head coach addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-by-position, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions,

Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Brett Greene's crew. Every practice is shot by several 8K Solutions cameras located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

AdventHealth Training Center consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is AHTC's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL LV

In a dominating performance at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, to claim the Lombardi Trophy, becoming the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. The Tampa Bay defense became just the fifth in Super Bowl history not to allow a touchdown. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Tom Brady found Rob Gronkowski for an 8-yard touchdown pass to give Tampa Bay a lead which it would never surrender. The Buccaneers were stopped on the goal line on their next possession, but followed it up with three consecutive touchdown drives. Gronkowski hauled in a 17-yard pass from Brady to score his second touchdown of the game, putting his name next to Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history with two-or-more touchdown receptions in multiple Super Bowls.

With 1:01 remaining in the opening half, the Buccaneers took advantage of a penalty-aided drive that resulted in a 1-yard touchdown reception for Antonio Brown with just six seconds before halftime, giving Tampa Bay a 21-6 advantage at the break. The Chiefs were able to get a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but that would mark the final points of the ballgame for Kansas City. The Buccaneers immediately responded with a Leonard Fournette 27-yard touchdown run followed by a 52-yard Ryan Succop field goal to push the lead to 31-9. The second half continued to be dominated by the Buccaneers defense, which consistently put pressure on put pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes.

Tampa Bay's defense recorded a pair of second-half interceptions - one from Devin White and one from Antoine Winfield Jr. Winfield became just the seventh rookie in NFL history with an interception in the Super Bowl. Collectively, the Buccaneers defense racked up nine quarterback hits in the game, which were tied for the fourth-most in a Super Bowl since QB hits became regularly tracked in 2006. Shaquil Barrett had four quarterback hits alone, tying for the second-most by an individual player in that span. Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors for the fifth time in his career, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns to earn a 125.8 passer rating. He moved to 7-3 in his career in Super Bowls - the most wins ever by any player in league history. The Super Bowl victory was the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, the longest winning streak in team history.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defended, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defended against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burst from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for a public figure or local sports legend, but rather for a thriving financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg – Raymond James Financial. Raymond James has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and is the official wealth management provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James Financial, Inc. is a leading diversified financial services company providing private client group, capital markets, asset management, banking and other services to individuals, corporations and municipalities.

To this day, people interacting with Raymond James for the first time assume that there was a founding father named Ray James somewhere in the firm's past. However, the firm's name comes from the 1962 merger of two financial services companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments – and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

The same integrity Bob James demonstrated back in 1964 is what the firm continues to strive for today. Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a complete and holistic understanding of each client's needs and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

"Giving back to the communities in which we live and work" is a phrase that has been part of the Raymond James mission from the beginning, and it's that commitment to putting others first – from clients to neighbors – that has been an integral part of the firm's culture – since its founding.

Now, more than six decades later, Raymond James and its associates are proud to continue the legacy – started by Raymond James founder Bob James, continued by his son and long-time Chair and CEO Tom James, and carried out by current Chair and CEO Paul Reilly – by investing time, money and talents into the communities they serve. It's so much more than tradition – it's part of who they are.

Together, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up to build, strengthen and grow our communities. One way we do this is through the Kicking for Kids program.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 22nd year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through Kicking for Kids.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes $1,500 to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $530,000 for local children's hospitals.

SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITIES WHERE WE LIVE AND WORK

Raymond James gives back to the communities where we live and work by investing in and volunteering with organizations focused on health and human services, education and financial empowerment, and culture and the arts.

Health and human services

Raymond James supports organizations that work to eradicate disease, create life-changing treatments, build safe places to live and educate people about healthy lifestyle choices. Some of our key partners in this space include the American Heart Association, American Red Cross, and Habitat for Humanity, among many others.

Education and financial empowerment

Raymond James proudly promotes lifelong learning by supporting programs that serve students of all ages, both inside and outside the classroom. For example, we fund and volunteer with mentorship programs serving students in elementary school all the way through college, like the Pinellas Education Foundation's Lunch Pals and Take Stock in Children, Big Brothers Big Sister's School-to-Work program, and USF's College Mentorship program.

Culture and the Arts

Raymond James supports nonprofit museums, theaters, symphonies, festivals, and art education and outreach programs that enrich our communities. These initiatives help communities thrive and mark cities as great places to visit, live and work. Some examples of key arts and culture partners include The Florida Orchestra, American Stage, and the Raymond James Gasparilla Festival of the Arts.

He holds numerous team and league records, including a streak of 200 consecutive starts at cornerback, the most for that position in NFL history.
